

PUBLICATION POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

This policy sets out the terms under which authors (whether singly or joint authors) agree to permit the Entertainment and Sports Law Journal (the Journal) to reproduce their manuscript.

2. COPYRIGHT

Copyright in the manuscript remains with the authors, who grant the Journal a licence to publish it.

3. AUTHORSHIP

Submission to the Journal implies that

- i) you are the original author and the owner of the copyright in the manuscript;
- ii) that
 - a) the material has neither previously been published elsewhere;
 - b) is not presently under consideration by any other journal(s); and
 - c) will not be submitted elsewhere until the editors of the Journal inform you in writing that they do not intend to publish the manuscript;
- iii) the manuscript is not defamatory and does not infringe any other rights of any third party;
- iv) you agree to indemnify the Journal and its Editors for any loss or damage arising from the breach of any of these warranties or for any other liability which may arise in connection with the publication of your manuscript.

4. SUBSEQUENT PUBLICATION OF MANUSCRIPT

Although copyright in the manuscript remains with the author, if you wish to publish your manuscript elsewhere after it is published in the Journal you undertake to obtain the editors' permission in advance to do so.

5. GOVERNING LAW

The law of England and Wales applies to this policy.

I agree to the terms of this Policy.
