

CELEBRATING WARWICK'S PIONEERING WOMEN

9th March | 5-7pm | Online Event | Open to all

Warwick Law School's Student Facing Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Team marks International Women's Day by hosting a panelled event with four pioneering women.

Dr Wendy Eades (PhD, Warwick Law School, 2019, Research & Evaluation Officer: Law for Life): is going to discuss women's experience of food poverty.

Helen Mclaughlin (Warwick German and Sociology Alumni) will talk about women's experience of disability.

Alice King (WLS PhD candidate, Lecturer in Law at London Southbank University) will share student attitudes towards sexual violence at elite universities and discuss what we can learn from their experiences.

Grace Rasmussen (WLS UG student) will talk about gender-based violence on campus.
