

CCLS Reading Group

Feminism, Capitalism and the Cunning of History

by Nancy Fraser

Introduced by Nicole Stybnarova

Wednesday 24 January 2024

11:00am-12:00pm

Email sandra.phillips@warwick.ac.uk for meeting link

In this work, Fraser provides a critical examination of the trajectory and significance of second-wave feminism in relation to capitalism. Fraser considers how feminist critiques intersected with economic, cultural, and political dimensions of gender injustice. In considering these aspects, Fraser suggests that the feminist movement inadvertently aligned with the rise of neoliberalism. In conclusion, Fraser proposes reorienting feminism in a way that resists co-optation by capitalist interests.