Term Dates

The academic year is split into two terms.

Term one runs from the beginning of October to late December,

Term two runs from late February to May.

There is an exam session at the end of each term, as there are no full year modules.

You can find dates at <http://portalestudente.uniroma3.it/en/international-mobility/general-information/>

Orientation

The university arranges orientation events before the start of term.

Find out more at <http://portalestudente.uniroma3.it/en/#>

Accommodation & Cost of Living

Roma Tre University does not have halls of residence, but the University is a partner of a private real estate company specialized in student accommodation which is there solely to help students find accommodation before they arrive.

The service is free and accommodation is checked by them to make sure that it is suitable.

They have a large range of properties, from room lodgings to letting apartments.

Accommodation is mainly in the Ostiense district.

Please be aware that the general quality of accommodation abroad may vary. You have to be flexible and prepared to compromise. Accommodation may not meet the standard that you are used to in the UK.

Module Choices

During your year you are required to take 60 ECTS worth of credits. Modules at Roma Tre University carry a range of credits with the majority of law options carrying 7 ECTS. Students take as many modules as required for a total of 60 ECTS.

Students are advised to distribute the workload as equally as possible between the two semesters.

There is a range of law options taught in English. Students are also permitted to study non-law modules (including language courses) for up to 15 ECTS worth of courses.

A general list of modules in English (including law modules) can be downloaded from:

<http://www.uniroma3.it/en/international/study-at-roma-tre/courses-in-english/>

Excluded options/subjects:

Students may not select subjects they have already studied at Warwick Law School in their second year. If there is doubt about the overlap, a decision can be obtained from the Director of International Programmes.

Students may not select foundational courses on common law subjects, such as "Introduction to the Common Law", "Introduction to English Law" etc.

Mark Conversion Procedure

Please note that mark conversion rules and conversion tables are under review every year and subject to change.

Students are required to take a total of 60 ECTS.

Modules at Roma Tre University carry a range of credits with the majority of law options carrying 7 ECTS. Students take as many modules as required for a total of 60 ECTS.

The module results are translated to Warwick marks individually according to the conversion table.

Year average: The year average is calculated with the individual translated module results. The weight of each module result is determined by the credit weight (ECTS) attached to the module at the partner university.

The year abroad counts for 120 CATS (LA246).
