Budapest is a good value city to live in - Eötvös Loránd University recommends a budget of 100,000 HUF per month (roughly £230) to cover the costs of accommodation, transport costs and social expenses.

Please be aware that the general quality of accommodation abroad may vary. You have to be flexible and prepared to compromise. Accommodation may not meet the standard that you

Module Choices:

During your year you are required to take 60 ECTS worth of credits. Each module is worth 5 ECTS. Students therefore take 12 modules (6 per semester).

Students are advised to distribute the workload as equally as possible between the two semesters.

There is a range of law options taught in English. Students are also permitted to study non-law modules (including language courses) for up to 15 ECTS worth of courses.

You can find a list of modules at http://www.ajk.elte.hu/en/studying_here/courses_foreign

Excluded options/subjects:

Students may not select subjects they have already studied at Warwick Law School in their second year. If there is doubt about the overlap, a decision can be obtained from the Director of International Programmes.

Students may not select foundational courses on common law subjects, such as “Introduction to the Common Law”, “Introduction to English Law” etc.

Mark Conversion Procedure:

Please note that mark conversion rules and conversion tables are under review every year and subject to change.

Students are required to take a total of 60 ECTS.

Modules at Eötvös Loránd University Budapest are worth 5 ECTS each. Students therefore take 12 modules (6 per semester).

The module results are translated to Warwick marks individually according to the conversion table.

Year average: The year average is calculated with the individual translated module results. The weight of each module result is determined by the credit weight (ECTS) attached to the module at the partner university.

The year abroad counts for 120 CATS (LA246).
