Dear LLM students,

I hope this email finds you well.

Please find below some information about some interesting seminar events, a conference opportunity at a local firm and PhD applications for the EUI.

Postgraduate students are warmly invited to attend the following events next week:

Dr Aman M. Hingorani,

Dr Aman M. Hingorani, Arbitrator, Senior Advocate & Mediator, Supreme Court of India is an alumnus of the Law School. He will visit on Tuesday 19 November 2024.

“Aman is an alumnus of the Law School and senior advocate in Delhi. He teaches at Delhi University Law School. He also leads the Kapila & Nirmal Hingorani Foundation which aims to work for the realization of human rights and freedoms, equality and dignity of the individual, particularly of women, children, the aged, the the poor and other weaker sections of society.”

Staff and students are invited to meet with Dr Hingorani and attend the following event on 19 November:

Refreshments will follow the event.

Law School Alumni Talk: “Preparing Lawyers for the Changing Landscape of Litigation”: 12noon -1pm R0.14 Ramphal Building.

The move away from reliance upon adversarial litigation is gathering pace with the growing importance of alternative forms of dispute resolution, such as arbitration and mediation.

Warwick Law School is delighted to welcome Dr Aman Hingorani to share insights drawn from their own experiences in India and elsewhere about the changing nature of access to justice, and the mindset change that the legal professional will need to make in order to handle adversarial and non-adversarial mechanisms for resolution of conflict.

Justice Ngugi

Roundtable with Justice Ngugi, Court of Appeal, Kenya on Wednesday, 20th November 2024.

“Judging and Constitutionalism in Contemporary Africa: In conversation with Hon. Justice Prof. Joel Ngugi (Court of Appeal, Kenya) and Justice Dorathy DeGabriele (High Court, Malawi)”

Wednesday, 20th November 4.15pm S2.12.

Refreshments will follow the event.

SSLC

Thank you to all those student who volunteered to serve on the PGT SSLC. We have two student representatives for each programme. We had our first meeting yesterday. Please contact your SSLC if you have any concerns about your academic studies or ideas for events. The SSLC members can be found here:
