Dear LLM students,

I hope you are all well.

There are several events of interest coming up that I would like you to know about:

Potluck Lunch - Student Hub, Wednesday, 28 February

Social Impact Careers Events Bookings essential – using links below, thanks

Events organised by Sam Brown our careers consultant – Booking essential

28 February 5-6.30pm Oculus 0.03

Social Justice Campaigning Careers – Talk by Oxfam

Do you want a career in social justice? Or campaigning? Come and hear about how Oxfam manages their campaigns. Anna Marriott, Oxfam's Public Services Policy Manager explains how Oxfam managed one hugely successful campaign: the people's vaccine campaign.

Understand how an organisation's goals and journey can be managed during such a campaign, how to attract the media's attention, how to decide where to target effort, measure the impact and learn from the outcomes.

28 February 4-4.55pm S2.212

Warwickshire Police: BodyCam Footage Watching & Discussion -great for your CV

Join this session to sample some work experience opportunities called Independent Scrutiny Panels. This session will look fabulous on an application for a related career and would make great discussion material in a written job/masters degree application or at a future interview. The police will be showing some body cam footage and asking for opinions, eg Do you feel they are using their powers fairly? Transparently? Do you have any ideas on how they build trust in the local community when they have these highly intrusive powers?

2 x £30 Amazon vouchers to win

Write a 700-1000 blog about any of these Social Impact Events you attended & email to sam.brown@warwick.ac.uk before the end of term. The Careers Service will choose the 2 best articles.

Book Launch - GLOBE

We are delighted to invite you to the launch of Dr Velimir Zivkovic's book, Fair and Equitable Treatment and the Rule of Law, on Thursday February 29, 2024 at R1.13 (Ramphal Building) from 12pm to 2pm.

About the Author:

Dr Velimir Zivkovic is Associate Professor at Warwick Law School. His work focuses on the interplay of international investment law and other areas of international and national law, as well as rule of law issues affecting these areas. He explores these topics by considering both the more traditional, doctrinal insights and critical legal studies. The focus is often on arguing whether and how the existing legal structures – in addition to being rightfully criticized and/or reformed – can also be used as a force for good in their present state.

About the Book:

Fair and Equitable Treatment and the Rule of Law provides a unique argument concerning the grounding of the FET standard in general principles of law and the importance of the host state's national rule of law and pre-existing obligations for the application of the FET standard. By comprehensively investigating the fair and equitable treatment standard (FET), this book presents how this standard in investment treaty disputes can be both legally justified and realistically beneficial. It reflects on how FET jurisprudence can be advantageous to both the rule of law and to the legitimacy of the international investment regime.

This book will be of great interest to scholars focusing on the fields of international investment law and arbitration, general principles of law, and the general rule of law and its contents. Students will also find this a valuable reference for studying both FET jurisprudence and the narratives that surround it.

About the Discussants:

Professor Mavluda Sattorova is Professor of International Economic Law at Liverpool Law School and Dr Jure Zrillic is Senior Lecturer at City Law School.

Lunch will be served at 12pm in the Ramphal Foyer.

We look forward to seeing you there!
