Subject: MODULE APPLICATION CLOSING/FEEDBACK RELEASE

Dear Undergraduate Students

Modules

Please remember that Module Applications close tomorrow at 12 noon. If you don't submit before the deadline, your choices will not be considered until after the first round of allocations. It's 12 noon, midday, 29th May 2026. Not 4pm or 5pm. There is no flexibility and you have been told.

I have been contacted about problems with the Application Form for Law with German students. I am trying to sort this out with the Admin team. This glitch will not affect your module choices, and I am sorry it is causing you undue stress. Please look out for emails from me today as I hope to advise on a solution.

Please direct any general Module enquiries to the Undergraduate Law Team - I can't answer them all personally. Any Module specific enquiries should go to individual Module Convenors.

Feedback Release

We are approaching the release dates for Term 2 grades and feedback. We all aim to meet the 20 working day turnaround for releasing your feedback but with the very high number of self certifications this is not always possible. If there is going to be a short delay in releasing feedback, your Module Convenor will inform you before the release date and will advise you of the new date.

Best wishes,
Maggie
