

Module Selection Guidance for LLM in International Commercial Law

Choosing your Modules

From the Law School Postgraduate Welcome Pages you will have access to our module taster videos. Even if you have a good idea of which modules you would wish to select, we encourage you to watch as many of the relevant videos as possible before finalising your module choices. The module taster videos will give you a good sense of the overall content, teaching style and presentation of modules.

Please make your module choices using the Module Pre-registration form by 6pm BST on Wednesday, 27 September 2023.

If you have any problems using the online form, please email the Law School Student Services Team at: postgraduate.law@warwick.ac.uk

Full-Time Students

If you are a full-time student, you will need to select six taught modules, three in Term 1 and three in Term 2 as well as LA984: Dissertation, Research and Writing Module.

On the LLM for International Commercial Law you will need the following:

Compulsory Core Modules

You Core Modules are LA9FN: Foundations of International Commercial Law and LA984: Dissertation, Research and Writing Module.

Part-Time Students

If you are studying part-time Year 1, please select four taught modules, two in Term 1 (one of which will be LA9FN: Foundations of International Commercial Law) and two options in Term 2.

If you are studying part-time Year 2, please choose your remaining optional modules and LA984: Dissertation, Research and Writing Module. For example, if you took 4 modules in your first year you will need to select 2 further optional modules and your dissertation module for this year. You must take a total of 120 CATS of taught modules. Your dissertation module is worth 60 CATS.

Core Module

You must take LA9FN: Foundations of International Commercial Law in your first year of study.

Dissertation Module

You will be formally registered for LA984: Dissertation, Research and Writing Module in Year 2 of your studies but you will find it very helpful to attend the taught classes in your first year as they will be helping to develop your research and essay writing skills. If this will be difficult for you, please contact your programme director (Dr Velimir Zivkovic) or the module convenor for LA984 (Mohsen Al Attar).

Changing Modules

We will ask you to make your module choices for both Term 1 and Term 2 by the end of Week 0. When the module timetable for Term 2 is confirmed later in Term 1, you may have a further opportunity to request any changes to your original options for Term 2.

If you have any questions the Law School Student Services Team are happy to help guide you. Please contact us at postgraduate.law@warwick.ac.uk
