

Warwick Political Geography 2014 – Conference Agenda

Thursday 27th November
9:30-10:15	Registration and Coffee
10:15-10:25	Introductory Note (Mara Duer and António Ferraz de Oliveira)
10:25-11:45	Session 1: Contesting Mobilities (chaired by Michael Saward) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• “Humanitarian Embrace, Biopolitical Abandonment – Two Shipwrecks, Two Stories” [Maurice Stierl, University of Warwick]</li> <li>• “Mobile borders, contested mobilities, and the geopolitics of Eurostar” [Chenchen Zhang, University of Copenhagen]</li> <li>• “Deterritorialization by the state: Recruitment of foreign labor and mainstream efforts to protect Japanese space” [Paul Capobianco, University of Iowa]</li> <li>• “The diasporic Amazigh (Berber) movement, geopolitics, and the imaginative geography of “Tamazgha” [Jonathan Harris, University of Cambridge]</li> </ul>
11:45-13:00	Lunch Break
13:00-14:20	Session 2: Contesting Subjectivities (chaired by Charlotte Heath-Kelly) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• “The West Bank and the Frontier of Difference: Self and Other in Hubert Haddad's Palestine” [Rebekah Vince, University of Warwick]</li> <li>• “Friends and Enemies on the Chile-Peru Border: The Almost-War of the 1970s” [Cordelia Freeman, University of Nottingham]</li> <li>• “Anxious integration: Militarised development in Sri Lanka's post-war frontier” [Thiruni Kelegama, University of Zurich]</li> <li>• “Urban trauma, repression and conflict - Wiping out streets and memories in post-war Amsterdam” [Bert van de Wiel and Sara Mielle, Utrecht University]</li> </ul>
14:20-14:45	Tea Break
14:45-16:05	Session 3: Contested Productions of Territory (chaired by Marijn Nieuwenhuis) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• “Techno-politics and the production of territory in post-war Greenland” [Johanne Bruun, Durham University]</li> <li>• “The seas and skies: Contesting the volume in Gibraltar” [Rachael Squire, Royal Holloway, University of London]</li> <li>• “The Centrality of Place in the Scottish Referendum” [Elizabeth Alexander, Royal Holloway, University of London]</li> <li>• “Immanent politics in a “world without spaciousness”: Frantz Fanon and Tan Malaka in the slums of Jakarta” [Lisa Tilley, University of Warwick/Université Libre de Bruxelles]</li> </ul>

Warwick Political Geography 2014 – Conference Agenda

16:05-16:25	Tea Break
16:25-17:55	Keynote Address: “Legal Lives: The Contested Political Spaces of Law” [Alex Jeffrey, University of Cambridge] (chaired by Stuart Elden)
18:00	Wine reception
Friday 28th November
9:30-10:00	Coffee and Tea
10:00-11:20	Session 4: Contested Cities (chaired by Jon Coaffee) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• “Gezi Park Protests and Struggle over Urban Space in Turkey” [Gulcin Lelandais, University of Tours]</li> <li>• “Contesting the Divided City” [Ophélie Verón, University College London]</li> <li>• “The Geopolitics and Governmentalities of “Trapped Urbanism”: East Jerusalem in Post-Oslo Era” [Oren Shlomo; Ben-Gurion University]</li> <li>• “Commoner vs. Consumer: Contending Productions of Space” [Emre Çetin Gürer, Villanova University]</li> </ul>
11:20-11:35	Tea Break
11:35-12:55	Session 5: Struggles for Alternatives (chaired by Vicki Squire) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• “Excess Spaces and the Rejection of Sovereignty in German Autonomie” [Ali Jones, Lapland University/University of Cambridge]</li> <li>• “Spatial limits in collective self-government of the Zapatista communities in Chiapas, Mexico” [Jan Smolenski, The New School for Social Research]</li> <li>• “Which space for what kind of event? Some lessons from Post-Socialism” [Arnoldas Stramskas, Vytautas Magnus University]</li> <li>• “From the language of space and the utopian body to the space of institutions” [Benoît Dillet, University of Kent]</li> </ul>
12:55-13:55	Lunch Break
14:00-15:20	Roundtable discussion: "Contested Political Spaces? - What concepts of space for what politics?" (Marijn Nieuwenhuis, Stuart Elden, Charlotte Heath-Kelly, Maria Koinova) (Chaired by Nick Vaughan-Williams)
15:20 - 15:30	Concluding Notes