

Get Started with the Library

12 things you need to know

Christine Bradford (Librarian for PAIS)

1. Library Website has details of all services and resources

The screenshot shows the library website's main navigation and search area. At the top, the title 'The Library' is followed by a dark green navigation bar with links for 'Using the Library', 'Students', 'Staff', 'Subject support', and 'My Library Account'. Below this is a 'Library Search' section with a search box, a 'Search this site' button, and radio buttons for 'Everything', 'Books', and 'Articles'. A large search input field with a 'Search' button is positioned below the filters. A horizontal menu of links is located at the bottom of the search section. A dark green banner contains a service notice about a temporary closure of Floor 5. The footer features a 'Study space' section with a home icon and a 'Get Started' section with a background image of a library bag and books.

3. We have an abundance of e-resources.

1.3 million e-books, 158,280 e-journals, newspapers, images, primary sources
