

ALSP Warwick, 2011: Schedule

Monday 4th July

10am – 12noon – Arrival (Rootes Building)

12noon – 12:50pm – Lunch in Rootes Building

12:50pm – 2:30pm (Social Sciences 0.21)

First plenary: Tom Christiano ‘State Consent and the Legitimacy of International Institutions’

2:45pm – 4:15pm – Session one

International Justice/Legitimacy (Social Sciences – room 0.21)

1. Ben Saunders – Democracy, rights and immigration
2. Patti Lenard – Democracy and the (human) right to exit

Chair: Sotiria Skarveli

Democracy (Social Sciences – room 0.09)

1. Leticia Morales – A democratic argument for the constitutional protection of economic and social rights
2. Yuval Eylon – Legitimate authority, and the infringement of rights

Chair: Fabienne Peter

Environmental Justice (Social Sciences – room 0.10)

1. Ed Page - Global Climate Change: Which burdens, whose responsibility?
2. Ganifranco Pellegrino – Individual responsibility for climate change: a necessary step for any justice-related view

Chair: Liam Shields

International Law and Global Governance (Social Sciences – room 0.08)

1. Elizabeth Ellis – Economic sanctions as humanitarian intervention
2. Shawn Kaplan – Is express consent required to fight a war justly?

Chair: Victor Tadros

Domestic Legitimacy (Social Sciences – room 0.03)

1. Justin Tosi – Rescuing the Right to Rule

2. Jonathan Seglow – When bad people do good

Chair: Tim Fowler

4:45pm – 6:15pm – Session two

International Justice/Legitimacy (Social Sciences 0.09)

1. Caleb Yong – Migration and Rawls's Law of Peoples
2. Johan Rochel – The case for a political-procedural approach to migration ethics

Chair: Zosia Stemplowska

Domestic Legitimacy (Social Sciences 0.10)

1. Esha Senchaudhuri – A critique of procedural legitimacy
2. Emanuela Ceva – Beyond Legitimacy: can proceduralism say anything relevant about justice?

Chair: Doug Bamford

Democracy (Social Sciences 0.08)

1. Martin Ebeling – The normative significance of disagreement and the priority of democracy over justice
2. Dean Machin – Democracy, political legitimacy and the problem of bureaucratic discretion

Chair: Fabienne Peter

Punishment (Social Sciences 0.03)

1. Milla Vaha – States, Intentions, and Punishment
2. Ian Lee – Corporate criminal responsibility as team-member responsibility
3. Jeffrey Howard – Self-coercion: democratic punishment, political liberalism and moral failure

Chair: Ed Page

Domestic Legitimacy (Social Sciences 0.21)

1. Massimo Renzo – Fairness, Self-deception and Political Obligation
2. Cillian McBride – Rethinking Democratic Participation

Chair: Peter Jones

8:00pm: Conference dinner in Scarman Building

Tuesday 5th July

9am – 10:30am – Session one

Arendt, Legitimacy and Justice (Social Sciences 0.21)

1. Keith Breen - Law beyond command? An evaluation of Arendt's understanding of law
2. Natalie Nenadic – Genocide and Sexual atrocities: Eichmann in Jerusalem and Karadzic in New York

Chair: Doug Bamford

International Justice/Legitimacy (Social Sciences 0.09)

1. Malte Ibsen – Global Justice
2. Graham Long - Global Justice and the Millennium Development Goals

Chair: Sotiria Skarveli

Democracy (Social Sciences 0.10)

1. Enzo Rossi – Justice, legitimacy and authority for political realists
2. Gabriele de Angelis – Moralism, realism and democratic legitimacy

Chair: Ed Page

Property Rights and Natural Resources (Social Sciences 0.08)

1. Chris Armstrong – Beyond national control over natural resources
2. Ashley Dodsworth – Grotius and natural resources as property

Chair: Patrick Capps

Toleration (Social Sciences 0.03)

1. Mihaela Georgieva – Self respect and political justification in pluralist societies
2. Devrim Kabasakal – Toleration as a normative response to the question of global diversity

Chair: Liam Shields

11am – 12:30pm – Session two

Citizenship (Social Sciences 0.21)

1. Matthew Humphrey & Marc Stears – Reason-giving and citizen behaviour in actually existing democracies
2. Russell Bentley – Dirty Hands and Unclean Citizens

Chair: Matthew Clayton

Toleration (Social Sciences 0.09)

1. Matthew Jones – Value pluralism, diversity and the role of the state
2. Federico Zuolo – Toleration and informal groups

Chair: Liam Shields

Domestic Legitimacy (Social Sciences 0.10)

1. Laura Roth – Legitimacy, coercion, and reasons for obeying criminal laws
2. Gustavo Beade – Criminalizing Poverty

Chair: Victor Tadros

Democracy (Social Sciences 0.08)

1. Lorenzo Cini – Beyond representative democracy toward a participatory deliberative model
2. Gideon Calder – Non-Kantian deliberative democracy

Chair: Patrick Capps

International Justice/Legitimacy (Social Sciences 0.03)

1. Makoto Usami – Global Justice, human rights and state duties
2. Avia Pasternak – Human rights and the limits of states' corporate responsibility

Chair: Dean Machin

12:30pm – 1:30pm – Lunch in Rootes Building

1:30pm – 3pm – Session three

Joseph Raz (Social Sciences 0.21)

1. Alexandra Couto – Legitimacy and rights: a defence of the service conception of authority
2. Adam Tucker – A wholeheartedly hybrid theory of authority

Chair: Sotiria Skarveli

Aggregation (Social Sciences 0.09)

1. Matthew Rendall – Priority, Aggregation, and the Economics of Climate Change
2. Victor Tadros – Aggregation and Justification

Chair: Tim Fowler

Self-ownership & Rights (Social Sciences 0.10)

1. Amanda Cawston – Do we have a right to self-defence?
2. Peter Jaworski – Ownership, guardianship & stewardship or: ownership, duty free
3. Nicholas Cornell – Wrongs without rights

Chair: Zosia Stemplowska

International Law and Global Governance (Social Sciences 0.08)

1. Alice Obrecht – The illusion of NGO legitimacy
2. Roland Pierik – Off-shored Medicine Tests and “The Standard of Care” as an Emerging Global Norm of Research Ethics

Chair: Dean Machin

Domestic Legitimacy (Social Sciences 0.03)

1. Luke Maring – Political Authority
2. Michael Sevel – Authority and the nature of obedience

Chair: Doug Bamford

3:30pm – 5pm – Session four

Moral Paradoxes (Social Sciences 0.21)

1. Saul Smilansky – Why moral paradoxes matter
2. Talia Shaham - Is there a paradox of moral complaint?

Chair: Victor Tadros

Dworkin (Social Sciences 0.09)

1. Doug Bamford – What is the justification for private property in Dworkin’s equality of resources?
2. Sotiria Skarveli – Equality of resources and social status

Chair: Dean Machin

Primary goods? (Social Sciences 0.10)

1. Jessica Begon – Capabilities without paternalism: a dilemma for Nussbaum and a new capability approach
2. Eoin Daly – Non-domination and the primary goods: echoes of Rousseau’s conception of legitimacy in Rawls’s political liberalism

Chair: Fabienne Peter

Children and Justice (Social Sciences 0.08)

1. Liam Shields – How bad can a good enough parent be?
2. Audrey Cahill – Mind the gap: social justice and childhood

Chair: Matthew Clayton

Domestic Legitimacy (Social Sciences 0.03)

1. Andre Santos Campos – The correlativity thesis as a criterion for constitutional validity
2. Veronica Rodriquez-Blanco – Legal Authority and the Paradox of Intention in Action

Chair: Ed Page

7pm: Supper in Rootes Building

Wednesday 6th July

9am – 10:30am – Session one

Toleration (Social Sciences 0.21)

1. Alexa Zellentin – Us and them: Minarets and Equal citizenship
2. Michele Bocchiola – Liberalism, cultures, and illiberal practices

Chair: Sotiria Skarveli

Domestic Legitimacy (Social Sciences 0.09)

1. Raymond Critch – The Nature of Legitimacy
2. Fabienne Peter - The Epistemic Foundations of Political Liberalism
3. Yann Allard-Tremblay – The authority of epistemic democracy

Chair: Liam Shields

International Justice/Legitimacy (Social Sciences 0.10)

1. David Alvarez – The legitimacy of ringfencing co-operation
2. Mattias Katzer – On the political role of human rights

Chair: Emanuela Ceva

International Law and Global Governance (Social Sciences 0.08)

1. Dean Machin – Epistemic success as a necessary condition of the legitimacy of international institutions
2. Patrick Capps - The Administration of Global Agencies by English Courts

Chair: Doug Bamford

Punishment (Social Sciences 0.03)

1. Kyron Huigens – Summary Corporal Punishment by Electrocutation and the rule of law
2. Harry Lesser – The responsibility of military leaders for war crimes

Chair: Victor Tadros

10:45am – 12:15pm – Session two

Joseph Raz (Social Sciences 0.21)

1. Chris Mills – Instrumental legitimacy and the burden of proof
2. Ben Martin – Law as authority and Raz’s argument for exclusive positivism
3. Antony Hatzistavrou – Reconsidering authoritative directives

Chair: Dean Machin

Domestic Legitimacy (Social Sciences 0.09)

1. Marius Ostrowski – Legitimacy, subjectivity and persuasiveness
2. Charles-Maxime Panaccio – The end of disagreement

Chair: Ed Page

Self-ownership & Property Rights (Social Sciences 0.10)

1. Diana Popescu – Is the robust right of self-ownership compatible with equality of opportunity for welfare?
2. Arabella Fisher – The compatibility of libertarian property rights and global redistributive taxation

Chair: Emanuela Ceva

International Law and Global Governance (Social Sciences 0.08)

1. Francois Tanquay- Renaud – Basic Challenges for global governance in emergencies
2. Peter Jones – Internal conflict and principled compromise

Chair: Patrick Capps

International Justice/Legitimacy (Social Sciences 0.03)

1. Raf Geenens – The co-originality of human rights and global democracy
2. Angela White – A Global Deliberative Democracy

Chair: Fabienne Peter

12:15 – 1pm: Lunch (Rootes Building)

1pm – 2:30pm (Social Sciences 0.21)

Second plenary: Antony Duff ‘Relational Reasons and the Criminal Law’

2:30pm: Conference closes