

BRITISH INTERNATIONAL STUDIES ASSOCIATION INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ECONOMY GROUP

ANNUAL WORKSHOP

Transparency and the Global Political Economy

10.30am - 5.30pm

Saturday 12 February 2000

Chancellor's Suite - Rootes Social Building
University of Warwick

Sponsored by the Warwick-ESRC Centre for the Study of Globalisation and Regionalisation

PROGRAMME

10:30-11:00

Panel 1: Transparency in Regulation and Crisis

Chair: Timothy Sinclair (Warwick)

Regulating in the Interest of the Citizen: Towards a Single Model of Regulatory Transparency?

Martin Lodge (Ulster at Jordanstown) and Lindsay Stirton (West Indies, Jamaica)

Governing Transparency in the Post-Bretton Woods Era: The Political Economy of Financial Crises in Latin America, the US, and the IMF

Susanne M. Soederberg (J.W.Goethe University of Frankfurt)

Transparency in the Age of Self-Regulation: The Case of OTC Derivatives Markets

Eleni Tsingou (Amsterdam)

12:30-2:00:

Buffet Lunch (Chancellor's Suite)

2:00-3:30

Panel 2: Transparency, Development and the Environment

Chair: Richard Higgott (Warwick)

The Theory Y Case Against Panopticism: Toward a Critique of the Economic Theory of Agency

David Ellerman (World Bank)

Transparency and Global Environmental Governance: The Rise of Environmental Auditing and Management Systems

Paul Langley (Northumbria at Newcastle)

3:30-4:00

Coffee/Tea

4:00-5:30

Panel 3: Transparency with an Asian Focus

Chair: Salil Tripathi (Amnesty International)

From the Developmental State to the Regulatory State: Transparency and Liberalization in Japan

Philip G. Cerny (Leeds/Manchester)

Transparency, Asian Economic Crisis and the Prospects of Media Liberalisation

Garry Rodan (Murdoch)

Transparency and Interest in the People's Republic of China: Which Interests Benefit?

Shaun Breslin (Warwick)