

WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

The Ideational Turn in International and European Studies: Revisions, Reflections and Re-considerations of the 'Power of Ideas' Hypothesis

CSGR Seminar Room (S1.50), 1st Floor Social Studies Building
University of Warwick

Saturday, June 1

10:00 - 10:30 Registration and Coffee

10:30 - 12:30 Panel 1:

Introduction and Overview: Reflections on the Ideational Turn

Andreas Gofas (University of Warwick, UK)

Between the Scylla of 'Ontological Terrorism' and the Charybdis of 'Methodological Opportunism': Reflections on the Ideational Turn

Lia Potec (Central European University, Hungary)

On the ontology and epistemology of the ideational.

Matthias Leonhard Maier (European University Institute, Italy)

Discourse and cognition as action and as structure: a conceptual framework for the analysis of ideas in politics

George Welton (University of Aberystwyth, UK)

The Problems of Cultural Selection in a Socially Constructed World.

Discussant: Prof. Colin Hay (Birmingham University)

12:30 – 13:30 LUNCH

13:30 - 15:15 Panel 2:

Ideas, Discourses and Policy Outcomes: Untying the knot.

Lars Tønder (Johns Hopkins University, USA)

Ideational analysis and the question of causality

Mary Martin (Pembroke College, Cambridge, UK)

Ideas, power and policy: a complex relationship

David Hudson (University of Birmingham, UK)

Rogue Traders: The Discursive Contestation of Financial Normality and Knowledge

Dóra Piroska (Central European University, Hungary)

Exploring ideational factors in the Hungarian and Slovenian banking sector policy formation since transition

Discussant: Dr. Diane Stone (University of Warwick)

15:15 – 15:45 COFFEE BREAK

15:45 - 17:30 Panel 3:

Ideas, Discourses and Diffusion Mechanisms: Bringing Rigour to Ideational Analysis.

Jim Dratwa (Harvard University, USA; Ecole des Mines de Paris, France; Fonds National de la Recherche Scientifique; Université Libre de Bruxelles, Belgium)

From the European Commission to the Construction of our Common World: Communicating the Precautionary Principle

Stella Ladi (Leeds Metropolitan University, UK)

The Role of Discourse in a Structure and Agency Relationship: The Case of Knowledge Institutions in Processes of Policy Change.

Andreas Antoniadis (London School of Economics, UK)

Communicating Discourses: The ‘Public’ through the ‘Hegemonic’ and the ‘Hegemonic’ through the ‘Public’.

Discussant: Dr. Ben Rosamond (University of Warwick).

We gratefully acknowledge the support of the ESRC Centre for the Study of Globalisation and Regionalisation and the Department of Politics and International Studies at the University of Warwick.