

CONSENT FORM

Title of Project: Everday in Lockdown

Name of Researcher(s): Shirin Rai, Briony Jones, Oyinlola Oyebode,

Please initial all boxes

1. I confirm that I have read and understand the information sheet for the above study. I have had the opportunity to consider the information, ask questions and have had these answered satisfactorily.
2. I understand that my participation is voluntary and that I am free to withdraw at any time without giving any reason, without my *medical, social care, education, or legal rights being affected.
3. I understand that the data collected during the study, including my first name, age, nationality, and photograph, may be looked at by individuals from The University of Warwick, from regulatory authorities, and by the general public. I give permission for these individuals to have access to my data.
4. I understand that the photos I submit to this project will be stored on secure, password protected devices at the University of Warwick and may be shared on the social media platforms (including, but not limited to Twitter and Facebook) of the Warwick Interdisciplinary Centre for International Development).
5. I understand that the photos I submit, along with the personal data I provide (first name, age, nationality) may also be published in a book at a later date.
6. If photos I submit include photos of my children, I confirm and consent that they have provided their consent to be a part of the project.
7. I agree to take part in this study.

If you consent to the seven points above, please submit your photographs along with the written or verbally recorded phrase: "I acknowledge that I have read the consent form and participant information sheet for the Everyday in Lockdown study and give my consent to publish the photos I attach here."
