

Department of Philosophy, University of Warwick

A conference on Hegel's *Science of Logic

2 – 3 May, 2013. Funded by The Leverhulme Trust

Thursday, 2 May 2013. Social Studies, S0.13

9.30 – 10.45: Anton Friedrich Koch (Heidelberg): “Hegel on the Logical Big Bang and the Evolution of Logical Space”

10.45 – 11.15: Coffee break

11.15 – 12.30: Claudia Wirsing (Jena): “The Importance of Difference in Hegel's Doctrine of Essence”

12.30: Lunch

14.00 – 15.15: Dietmar Heidemann (Luxembourg): “Essence and Appearance”

15.30 – 16.45: Richard Lambert (Warwick): “The Necessity of Contingency and the Contingency of Necessity”

16.45 – 17.15: Coffee break

17.15 – 18.30: Michela Bordignon (Padua): “Hegel: a Dialetheist? Truth and Contradiction in Hegel's Logic”

19.30: Dinner

Friday, 3 May 2013. Social Studies S0.13 and S0.17

S0.13

9.15 – 10.30: Christian Martin (Munich): “Hegel on Judgement”

10.30 – 11.00: Coffee break

11.00 – 12.15: Alfredo Ferrarin (Pisa): “Spontaneity and Reification. Hegel on Thinking”

12.15: Lunch

13.45 – 15.00: Charlotte Baumann (UCL): “Hegel's Logic as a Theory of Freedom”

S0.17

15.15 – 16.30: Johannes-Georg Schülein (Bochum): “Hegel’s Logic and the Language of Representation”

16.30 – 17.00: Coffee break

17.00 – 18.15: Graham Wetherall (Warwick): “The Objectivity of Schein in Hegel's Science of Logic”

19.30: Dinner

Speakers are requested to pay for their own lunches on Thursday and Friday. Dinner on both days will be provided for speakers free of charge. Others attending the conference are welcome to attend the dinner at their own expense.