Travelling to the University of Warwick

The University of Warwick lies between the area of Coventry city and two other towns, Kenilworth and Leamington Spa. The nearest airport to the University is Birmingham International, from which you can easily take a train to Coventry or Leamington stations. For London airports, train services run from London Euston station to Coventry and from London Marylebone to Leamington Spa. Ticket prices vary depending on the time of travel but its best to book your rail tickets in advance. You can book by visiting the following website: <http://www.nationalrail.co.uk>

From Coventry train station: you can either take a bus or a taxi to the University's central campus (you will need to get off at central campus' Bus Interchange, ask the driver if you are unsure).

A taxi rank operates outside the station. The journey will cost you approximately £8-10 and will take 10-15 mins depending on traffic.

You can take either the number 11, 11U or the 12X bus from Coventry station (and back). The journey time with the 11 and 11U buses takes 20-25 mins, whereas journey time with the 12X takes 12-15 mins. You can pay by either cash or contactless debit/credit card on the bus (Note: international credit/debit cards may not work on the bus as forms of payment).

From Leamington Spa train station: you can either take a taxi or a bus to the University's central campus.

No taxi rank is in operation at Leamington Spa train station but you can call a cab (01926 42 59 59) to take you to the University's central campus. The cost will be approximately £20 and the journey time will be approximately 25 minutes.

You can take the number 11 bus, which will take you to the University. The bus stop for number 11 is located a short distance away on High Street. A U1 can also be taken from a stop opposite the Parish church, 5 minutes away. The bus journey goes via Leamington Spa city centre and Kenilworth town and lasts approximately 40 minutes.

University campuses and Locations

The University of Warwick is comprised of three campuses: Westwood campus, Central or Main campus and Gibbet Hill campus. They are a short distance apart, and the conference will be held in the Oculus building on the main campus.

The University's Bus Interchange is located right next to the Warwick Arts Centre. If you are arriving from the bus stop, you can walk past the Student's Union and grocery store to reach the Oculus building in less than five minutes. Maps can be found on the route, at the end of this document and online at <https://campus.warwick.ac.uk/>.

The Oculus is wheelchair accessible, with accessible toilets available on the ground floor. Gender neutral toilets can be found in the Library, Social Sciences building, Student Union Headquarters and in the Dirty Duck pub (these last two buildings are located on the main campus piazza).

Food arrangements during the conference

Lunch and coffee will be provided during the conference. If you have specific dietary requirements please make sure to inform us of these when you register or by contacting us directly.

The evening of the first day will close with a wine and food reception, courtesy of the Centre Michel Foucault.

On the Thursday evening a conference dinner will be held at the Scarman restaurant, in the University's conference park. If you wish to attend this dinner please select the option on the conference registration page.

There are also a number of restaurants on campus, all of which have vegetarian and vegan options: Xananas, Bar Fusion and the Dirty Duck. There are also two coffee shops, the student-run 'Curiositea' and Costa Coffee. All these are situated on the main campus piazza.

Wednesday 26th June, 5 pm – 7 pm, OC1.04

The 26th June will open with a roundtable discussion on Foucault, philosophy and problematisation, featuring Claudia Stein (Warwick), Amadeo Policante (Warwick), Stuart Elden (Warwick), Daniele Lorenzini (Saint-Louis – Bruxelles) and Martina Tazzioli (Swansea).

The roundtable is generously supported by the Centre Michel Foucault and will focus on Foucault and Problematisation.

Thursday 27th June, 5 pm – 7 pm, OC0.02

The 27th will then feature a roundtable discussion of crisis in philosophy and other disciplines with Miguel de Beistegui (Warwick), Amadeo Policante (Warwick), Federico Testa (Warwick/Monash) and Andrew Cooper (Warwick) representing the collective project Philosophy in a Time of Crisis (philosophyx.co.uk), a collective research project based at the University of Warwick. The project promotes philosophy as an essential tool for reflection upon the major crises and challenges of our time, and the meaning and nature of crisis itself.

The roundtable will focus upon the concept of crisis and its role in both philosophy and other disciplines.

Friday 28th June, 3 pm – 5 pm, OC0.04

On the closing day of the conference, we are also pleased to feature a keynote presentation Potentially, Relationality and the Problem of Actualisation from Andrew Benjamin (Kingston/University of Technology, Sydney).
