

Gender and Climate Change

a workshop to explore the gendered dynamics of climate change

Vulnerable victims or resilient subjects? Dismantling the gendered discursive traps of climate change politics

Dr Sherilyn MacGregor (Senior Lecturer in Environmental Politics, Keele)

Gender, Climate Change and Food Sovereignty in South Asia: an exploration from a feminist political ecology perspective

Dr Lopa Saxena (Research Associate, Centre for Agroecology, Water & Resilience, Coventry)

Missing: The forgotten women in India's climate plans

Climate and Development Knowledge Network film, introduced by Rebekah

Martin (MA Gender and International Development, Warwick).

All welcome on the 29th May 2015

Wolfson Research Exchange 3

2-4pm

A buffet lunch will be provided at 1pm. Please register with L.Pettinger@warwick.ac.uk or Nickie.Charles@warwick.ac.uk for catering purposes.