

Centre for Organising Health and Care Research

WHO WE ARE

COHCR is a growing inter-disciplinary community that aims to make a difference to health and care regionally, nationally & internationally through building capacity and generating and sharing learning.

WHAT WE DO

COHCR offers a place for our community to connect, collaborate and create, with a distinct focus on health and care.

WHO IS INVITED

We would love everyone with an interest in organising health and care research to join us. Early Career Researchers, PhDs, Experienced Academics and Practice and Policy Colleagues are all very welcome.
