

PPI@Warwick

Process Practice Institutions

Research Programme

Socrates Club

Seminar Title:

“Beyond Rational Persuasion: How Leaders Change Moral Norms.”

Date:

30 May 2022, (14:00-15:00, UK time - GMT+1)

Speaker:

Charles Spinosa, PhD

Charles Spinosa is a Group Director in VISION Consulting. He leads work on strategic innovation, programs to correct cross-boundary coordination problems, and leadership coaching. He has developed and deployed value-conflict resolution methodology for innovation, enriched and deployed commitment-management methodology, and new methodology for leading knowledge workers. Before management consulting, Charles taught English literature at Miami University in Ohio, philosophy at the University of California, Berkeley, and published widely in both fields. He earned his Ph.D. from Berkeley

The meeting will be hosted online via MS Teams. The link to the session will be provided to registered individuals.

If you would like to attend, please make sure you register via the following link:

<https://forms.gle/YjyFqnDy1U7VxK1F8>

For further information contact

demetris.hadjimichael@wbs.ac.uk

For further information about the Socrates Club and Process Practice and Institutions Research Programme see:

<https://warwick.ac.uk/fac/soc/wbs/research/ppi/>