

International Summer School on Advanced Practice-based Studies

An international forum for the study, development and promotion of practice-based studies in organization, administrative and policy sciences

2015 Edition

Conceptual and methodological advances in practice-based studies

University of Warwick, Coventry, 31 August-4 September 2015

	10.00am	12.00 noon	1.30pm	3.00pm	3.30pm	5.00pm
Mon	Arrivals, registrations and welcome dinner – pre-dinner drinks from 6.00pm
Tue	09.30 Introduction	An introduction to practice and why it matters Ted Schatzki	Lunch	An introduction to practice and why it matters Ted Schatzki	Break	Group reflection and debate Summary of the day and openings for tomorrow	Note 1
Wed		Engaging in regimes of practices Laurent Thevenot	Lunch	Engaging in regimes of practices Laurent Thevenot	Break	Group reflection and debate Summary of the day and openings for tomorrow (finish at 5.10pm)	Note 2
Thu		Design-oriented practice studies Jack Whalen	Lunch	Design-oriented practice studies Jack Whalen	Break	Group reflection and debate Research Clinics (until 6.00pm)
Fri		Strategy-as-practice and studying practices empirically Paula Jarzabkowski	Lunch	Strategy-as-practice and studying practices empirically Paula Jarzabkowski	Break 15 mins	Group reflection & final thoughts (until 4.00pm) Research Clinics (until 6.00pm)	Note 3

Notes:

- 1) Guided tour of the campus and Warwick University's Sculpture Trail; 2) Visit to Shakespeare's Stratford;
- 3) Informal walk to Kenilworth, followed by dinner at a local pub