APPENDIX 1 – Draft WIISP Pastoral Care Plan for Venice Residential Modules

HANDBOOK AND PASTORAL CARE PLAN FOR WARWICK INTERNATIONAL INTENSIVE STUDY PROGRAMME (WIISP) MODULES TAKING PLACE IN VENICE

SUMMER 2024

0.0 - Preamble

This brief plan outlines the policies and procedures in place for pastoral care and student support while undertaking residential Warwick International Intensive Study Programme modules in Venice in Summer 2024.

The policies and procedures below apply to the following modules:

- HI2K4 — Music and History (27 May – 7 June 2024)
- IP315 — A Sustainable Serenissima: Water and the Future of Venice (10-28 June 2024)*
- HI2H2— Venice in the Renaissance (17-28 June 2024)
- IP317 — Venice: Resistance and Representation (24 June – 12 July 2024)*
- CX391 — Health and the Environment from Antiquity to Renaissance Venice (1-12 July 2024)
- IB2D1/IB2D2 — Engaging with International Business – Strategic Luxury Leadership (1-12 July 2024).

 includes online prep-week*

The teaching space for these modules (when not participating in an onsite field-based activity) will be at the Warwick in Venice teaching and research centre on the second floor of the Palazzo Giustinian Lolin, San Marco 2893, 30124, Venice, Italy.

0.1 - Governing Policies

Policies and procedures below are taken from existing regulations and policies at the University of Warwick. In the case of any conflict between the policies outlined below and official university regulations and policies that apply to you through your formal relationship with the university—such as those found in the University Calendar, on the pages of Education Policy and Quality, guidelines found on the pages of Wellbeing Support Services, Health and Safety Services, and the Dean of Students office—the latter will supersede any policies outlined here. Staff and students are encouraged to familiarise themselves with the policies below and broader university policies before arriving for residential teaching and learning in Venice.

0.2 - Accommodation

Please note that students are responsible for identifying and booking their own accommodation. WIISP will simply provide direction on where some students stayed in 2023 and have recommended. Students are advised to consider the varying facilities, including security and reception facilities provided at different accommodations. Staff will not be on hand or available outside of teaching hours to help with minor incidents.

0.3 - Insurance Cover

Warwick fee-paying students on the module are covered by the University's Business Travel Insurance Policies. (If you are an Erasmus or Exchange student at Warwick, please note that you are not covered by this policy). Please note that the University's policy does not cover you if:

- a) You are under the influence of alcohol.
- a) You are under the influence of drugs.
- b) You are committing an activity that is in violation of local laws.

If you are not covered by these policies, it is your responsibility to arrange independent private insurance cover. You are also required to obtain independent private insurance cover for any personal travel that you may do around the scheduled teaching in Venice.

1.0 - Expectations

1.1 - Community Values and Expectations

All students on WIISP residential modules are expected to abide by Warwick's Core Values to create a supportive, accessible and inclusive environment within which all members of our community can successfully learn, work, live and socialise with dignity. We uphold the importance not only of freedom of thought and expression, but also the significance of academic and personal integrity, equality and diversity, and mutual respect and consideration for the rights, safety, and dignity of all. Any form of violence, harassment, or discrimination will not be tolerated and will be treated with the utmost severity and sincerity in accordance with University misconduct policies.

During your time in Venice, please keep in mind that you are guests in a foreign country and that you are representing the university. You are expected to behave accordingly.

Please note that the only official line of communication between you and the university will be your Warwick email (even if you are a visiting student from another institution). You are expected to check your Warwick email daily and it is your responsibility to do so. We encourage you to set up your Warwick email on your mobile device.

1.1.1 - Sexual Misconduct

The University Principles make clear that we do not tolerate sexual misconduct, violence, or abuse (Principle 3). They also make clear that we are committed to providing a learning environment in which all members of our community feel safe and are respected. We are committed to preventing and eliminating all forms of sexual misconduct. You should familiarise yourself with the university's sexual misconduct policy. Support is available for all students who witness or are victims of sexual misconduct, and this also applies to your time in Venice. If you think that you have witnessed or been the victim of sexual misconduct, you are strongly encouraged to contact Warwick's Report and Support service, along with any other support services listed on the above page regarding the sexual misconduct policy.

1.1.2 - Alcohol and Illegal Drugs

You are also encouraged to familiarise yourself with Regulation 27 of the University's Residential Life Policy, which includes the policy on Illegal Drugs and Alcohol use. Extracts of this policy are adapted below:

If you are over 18 then you can legally drink alcohol in Italy. You should be respectful of other students who choose not to drink alcohol and mindful not to disturb flatmates or neighbours both on campus and in the local community. Venice is already overrun by noisy and disrespectful tourists. As Warwick students you are encouraged to be respectful of Venetian residents and keep your voices down when you are out in the evening or passing through residential neighbourhoods.

The University promotes sensible drinking in social facilities. We recognise that moderate and responsible use of alcohol plays an important and enjoyable role in the social lives of many students. Abuse of alcohol by a minority can, however, be damaging both to those students themselves and to those who live, study and work alongside them.

Antisocial drunken behaviour may lead to fines from the Italian authorities, legal penalties, and/or disciplinary action. Such behaviour in the teaching spaces or accommodation may lead to a ban from the premises. If this occurs, the university will not be responsible for finding alternative accommodation or making alternative travel or teaching arrangements for the student.

It is the University's policy not to tolerate the use of illegal substances in its teaching facilities or in its buildings. Students found to be using or in possession of or knowingly allowing any illegal substance, including cannabis, to be used in contravention of this policy, may face disciplinary or legal action from the local authorities. Such behaviour in the in the teaching spaces or accommodations may lead to a ban from the premises. If this occurs, the university will not be responsible for finding alternative accommodation or making alternative travel arrangements for the student.

You may also face legal action by the Italian authorities if you break any Italian laws.

1.2 - Respect, Safety, and Security in Venice

While in Venice, you are expected to respect the city and its residents. This means (among other things):

- Do not litter. Carry your waste around until you find a trash bin.
- When possible, carry your wheeled suitcases
- Do not feed pigeons or other birds
- Do not walk around in beach wear
- Do not swim in the canals
- Don't stop on bridges to take pictures if doing so will block circulation of pedestrian traffic
- On narrow streets walk in single file to allow others to pass
- Don't be loud at night. Venetians have been known to throw water (or worse) at loud tourists
- Do not sit and eat on steps of churches, bridges, monuments, streams, canals, etc.
- Do not sit and eat/drink in St Mark's square at any time (other than in designated restaurants/café's)
- Treat Venice the way you would like your own neighbourhood to be treated
- For more information, see the #EnjoyRespectVenezia pages.

1.2.1 - Safety in Venice

You should stay up to date with the most recent travel advice for Italy from the Foreign, Commonwealth, and Development Office (FCDO).

While Venice is a very safe city, it is still a major tourist site. As such, pickpockets and luggage thieves do operate throughout the city. Use the same common sense you would use in any major city: keep your belongings in sight at all times, avoid using open tote bags, be aware of your surroundings and beware of anyone who comes up to you trying to distract you or draw your attention elsewhere. For safety reasons, you are expected to travel in groups of two or more, even during daytime when possible.

You should keep all of your travel documents in a safe place. Except for when arriving/departing from your residence, you will only need to carry a copy/scan of your identification documents while in Venice. Keep all originals in a safe place (such as the safe in your accommodation or hidden in a locked suitcase). Do not carry around large amounts of cash or valuables.

You are required to take a scan/photograph of all important documents (passport, BRP card, ID cards, etc... and ensure that you can access an electronic copy of these documents if required—for example, you may wish to save them in the notes function on your phone, email them to yourself, or upload them to files.warwick.)

At certain times of year the tide can be quite high at night (though this rarely occurs in the summer months), which often leads to flooding of some streets and squares. Be very careful when you see water. The stones are often quite slippery and the water can sometimes be deeper than expected. Proceed with extreme caution, or, if possible, try to find another route to your destination.

1.3 - Attendance, Engagement, and Preparation

Unless otherwise advised by your module tutor, punctual attendance at all scheduled teaching sessions is mandatory. Please note that quite often each session counts as at least a full week session during normal term time. Each day you miss is the equivalent of at least a missed weekly session during term time (if not more). The register will be taken at the start time indicated on the schedule. A combination of non-engagement and missing two consecutive sessions will trigger the missing student protocol and may be escalated to Wellbeing support services for a wellbeing check (please note that the delays between each step will be reduced to one working day due to the intensive nature of the modules).

You are expected to attend regularly and to show up to classes ready to learn and actively participate. During field-based sessions, you are expected to show up at the time and location provided by your module tutor. Please be punctual as module tutors will not wait around for late arrivals. Preparation for all scheduled teaching sessions and active participation are critical. Preparation for class equally means arriving with an open mind and a willingness to engage and collaborate with others, ready to take notes, work together, and to contribute to group discussions.

1.3.1 – Mental Health Support Plans, Learning Difficulties, and Preparation for your WIISP Module

You are encouraged to disclose any mental health or learning difficulties prior to your arrival in Venice. Any students who struggle with their mental health are advised to make robust preparations before going abroad. If you are currently seeking support from any medical or wellbeing professional, you are advised to discuss and create a support plan with that professional prior to travel. If you currently have reasonable adjustments in place, you are advised to communicate these to WIISP@warwick.ac.uk where they will be passed to the relevant module tutor. If you have a specific learning difficulty but do not have an RA plan in place, you should contact disability services at Warwick to put in place a reasonable adjustments plan before your WIISP module begins.

2.0 - Pastoral Care and Welfare

2.1 - Personal Tutoring

2.1.1 - For Existing Warwick Students (on a three- or four-year UG degree programme, or PG students)

If you are a Warwick student, you will retain your regular personal tutor while you are in Venice. They will be available to you via email and Microsoft Teams during normal office hours. You are expected to check your Warwick email regularly and it is your responsibility to do so. As the modules may be outside of term time, there may be a slightly longer delay for your PT to get back to you. You should inform your personal tutor that you will be participating in a WIISP module and the dates when it will be running. You should check with them whether there are any anticipated periods of annual leave and who you can contact in their absence (e.g. Senior Tutor, etc..).

2.1.2 - For Visiting Students (based at another partner institution)

During your WIISP module(s), the module tutor will also serve as your personal tutor.

Warwick's Personal Tutor system is central to the network of support services which you can expect from the University. Every undergraduate student is allocated a Personal Tutor. For more on the role of the personal tutor, see the Dean of Students' pages.

Your Personal Tutor is available to discuss any issues or queries which you may have about your academic, social or personal life and will, in most cases, be your first point of contact in the event that you 'need to talk'. You are encouraged to email them with any concerns and they will usually get back to you within one working day. As your personal tutor will be the module tutor, you may wish to speak to them after any timetabled teaching sessions if you would rather chat in person.

The main functions of the Personal Tutor (as per the Personal Tutor Code of Practice) are:

- To be an accessible and approachable departmental point of contact discharging all University and Departmental requirements of personal tutors including acting as a possible referee.
- To provide responsive academic and routine wellbeing support and guidance that facilitates tutees' learning development and experience - keeping brief and factual records of discussions and agreed actions.
- To maintain awareness of relevant University regulations and policies, departmental and University support and development opportunities, to signpost and refer students as required.
- To undertake personal tutor training as required

Personal Tutors are not:

- Normally available outside of regular office hours (M-F 9-5)
- Trained to provide mental health advice, counselling, or treatment. Support for such issues can be found via Wellbeing Support Services (see information below)
- Able to provide logistical help (travel arrangements, accommodation issues, restaurant recommendations, etc...)
- Trained to assist in the event of an emergency or a crisis. In an emergency, you should contact emergency services. Please refer to the guidance below that follows. It is strongly recommended that you store all emergency contact numbers below on your mobile phones upon receipt of this guidance.

2.2 - Emergency Support Available

Please note that module tutors and personal tutors are not trained to provide emergency assistance and are unable to respond rapidly to major events outside of teaching hours.

2.2.1 - Emergency Support at your hotel

In the event of an emergency occurring within or on the grounds of your accommodation you are advised to contact the reception staff at the front desk who will be able to help and contact the local emergency services if appropriate:

2.2.2 - Emergency Support away from your hotel

If the event happens off the grounds of your accommodation, you should contact the numbers below as appropriate (you may need to dial +39 as a prefix depending on your carrier):

- For immediate Police, Ambulance, or Fire Assistance: 112
- For emergency medical assistance (to call an ambulance directly): 118

You should save these numbers in your phone immediately.

If you have a medical emergency, but do not require an ambulance, the nearest hospital is Ospedale SS. Giovanni e Paolo (also known as San Zanipolo). The pedestrian entrance is open 24 hours and is on Campo SS. Giovanni e Paolo (north of Piazza San Marco, near Fondamente Nove). You can see the hospital on a map here.

2.3 - Duty Phone

Your module tutor will have a duty phone, but you should only call this in the event of major emergencies, and only after you have called emergency services (above). A major emergency consists of an event for which you would need emergency services (e.g. hospitalisation, arrest by police, or if you are the victim of a crime).

The duty phone number is: + 39 333 3308575

You should save this number in your phone. Please note that module tutors will not be able to respond quickly to major emergencies (it may take some time for the tutor to travel to the hospital or police station). You should only contact them on the duty phone to make them aware of the situation once you have contacted emergency services.

Module tutors will be able to provide support by signposting to Warwick services and helping you navigate university policies. This support would be the same as the support that can be provided by a personal tutor. They are unable to make alternative travel or accommodation arrangements for you, and are not trained in crisis management or able to support acute mental health crises.

Please see the FAQ below if you have questions on what to do if different situations.

2.4 Non-Emergency Support Available

The following support services are available to you during your time on the WIISP modules. These are available to all students, both those from visiting partners and Warwick UG/PG students.

2.4.1 – Warwick in Venice

Warwick's Venice Programme Co-Ordinator, Chiara Croff, may be able to provide support with any logistics issues regarding your time in Venice. Her knowledge of Venice and resources available to students is extensive, but please note that as Venice Programme Co-Ordinator she has many duties to fulfil and is not a tour guide or a travel agent. She is available Monday to Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The easiest way to get in touch with her is via email: venice@warwick.ac.uk, though you may also meet her in person at the Warwick in Venice Campus on the second floor of the Palazzo Giustinian Lolin. During the above hours, she is usually reachable at the following phone number +39 377 5907617 (but may not always be able to answer if she is carrying out other Warwick-in-Venice-related duties).

2.4.2 - Wellbeing Support Services

Wellbeing Support Services provides a range of support for students. More information about the full range of support available can be found on their website: <https://warwick.ac.uk/services/wss>

If there is something troubling you, or hindering you from focusing on your studies, you are encouraged to contact them. The issues may be:

- practical - for example, difficulties with accommodation;
- emotional - homesickness, family difficulties, anxiety, depression, or anything else that is related to mental health;
- wellbeing-related - concerns about your wellbeing and how you can better manage it, or that of another member of the University community;
- safety-related - concerns about security, harassment or crime.

The best way to access wellbeing support services remotely is to log onto the wellbeing portal <https://wellbeing.warwick.ac.uk/> and submit an enquiry to speak to a wellbeing adviser via a brief consultation (available Monday - Friday 10 am - 3pm UK time; remember, Venice is one hour ahead of the UK, so the hours will be 11 a.m. – 4 p.m. Italian time).

If you have any queries about how to access the portal or need any further guidance about wellbeing services, you can telephone Wellbeing Support Services on +44 24765 75570 Monday to Friday 8.30am-5pm UK time (Friday until 4pm UK time).

2.4.3 - Warwick Nightline

Warwick Nightline is a student-run, confidential, and non-judgmental peer-to-peer support listening service open to all students on WIISP modules. You can contact them via email, instant messaging, or telephone. It is open from 9pm to 9am every night of term and trained volunteers are happy to listen to anything you may wish to discuss. Nothing is too difficult or too trivial to be worth mentioning. This service may or may not be available during your time in Venice (depending on when your module falls; Term 3 ends on Saturday 1 July, 2023).

2.4.4 - Chaplaincy

The University operates a multifaith Chaplaincy year-round for students of all faiths and none. The Chaplains work closely with Wellbeing to help support students. Any student should feel free to contact any Chaplain, regardless of faith. For more information, see the Chaplaincy webpage. The chaplaincy is open to all students on WIISP modules.

2.4.5 - Mental Health Support for British Nationals in Italy

The FCDO can provide some limited support for British Nationals in Italy who require mental health support. You can find out more about this support here:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/italy-mental-health-support-abroad/mental-health-support-for-british-nationals-in-italy>

If you are normally a resident of Warwickshire, you may wish to contact the Warwickshire mental health matters helpline: <https://wellbeingforwarwickshire.org.uk/#>

If you are not normally a resident of Warwickshire or a British National, you are encouraged to contact your local embassy or consulate who may be able to provide limited additional support if need be. This support might include help if you lose your passport or possibly repatriation in case of an unexpected global/national crisis.

2.4.6 – Report and Support

Report and Support is the University of Warwick’s single online platform for reporting bullying and harassment, discrimination, sexual misconduct and/or hate crime. The website allows you to disclose both anonymously and with details, to ensure that all students and staff can access support. It doesn’t matter if the incident(s) took place on or off campus, or if the incident(s) happened in the past—Student Liaison Officers are available to provide confidential support and outline the potential next steps. No reports trigger a formal complaints procedure, and no further action will be taken without your consent. Report and Support is open to all students on WIISP modules

2.4.7—Togetherall

The university subscribes to the Togetherall mental health support service. This service offers a safe, online community where people support each other anonymously to improve mental health and wellbeing. It is available 24/7 and all you need is a Warwick email address to sign up. Togetherall is open to all students on WIISP modules.

3.0 - Frequently Asked Questions

The following section details some examples of situations and how you should respond in each case. Please familiarise yourself with these situations and responses. Many of these situations will not occur during your time in Venice. These are provided solely as examples, and the list below is not meant to be exhaustive.

3.1 - What do I do if...

...I am in a hotel and my neighbour is making too much noise?

A) Contact the reception and inform them of the problem. Unfortunately, Warwick staff cannot engage in supporting incidents that occur in self sourced accommodation (just as we would not be able to do so if you were living in private accommodation in Coventry).

...I am in independently rented accommodation (e.g. apartment) and my neighbour is making too much noise?

A) Unfortunately, Warwick staff cannot engage in supporting incidents that occur in self sourced accommodation (just as we would not be able to do so if you were living in private accommodation in Coventry). You may wish to consult the housing support pages offered by the Warwick Students’ Union.

...I have been the victim of pickpocketing.

A) Contact the police on 112 to report the theft. Let the module tutor know (via email if you do not need urgent assistance, or via the duty phone if you need them to come to the police station).

...I have witnessed or been the victim of sexual misconduct.

A) Contact the police on 112 to report what happened if a crime has been committed. Contact Warwick's Report and Support service. Call the duty phone if you need the module tutor to come to the police station or hospital.

A) Firstly, be sure to identify the area you are staying in and have some key points to help guide you (such as Vaparetto stops). Ask for directions to a nearby areas. Do not call the duty phone.

...I am feeling homesick / anxious / worried /depressed.

A) Homesickness can be difficult, and can affect anyone. Please know that this is a very normal experience and nothing to be ashamed of. You may wish to call a friend from back home, contact Warwick wellbeing services, or email your personal tutor (you may not receive an immediate response). Warwick Wellbeing Services has a number of self-service tools, including the Togetherall online community that might be helpful.

If you are experiencing an acute mental health crisis, you may wish to contact emergency services. Call the duty phone only if you need the module tutor to come to the hospital.

...I have committed a crime and have been brought to a police station.

A) Let the module tutor know by calling the duty phone. Please note that the module tutor is unable to provide any kind of legal representation or to negotiate on your behalf.
