What do these pictures on medieval Spon Street tell you about Coventry's history?

The Cappers' Chapel

The Dyers' Chapel

The Girdlers' Chapel

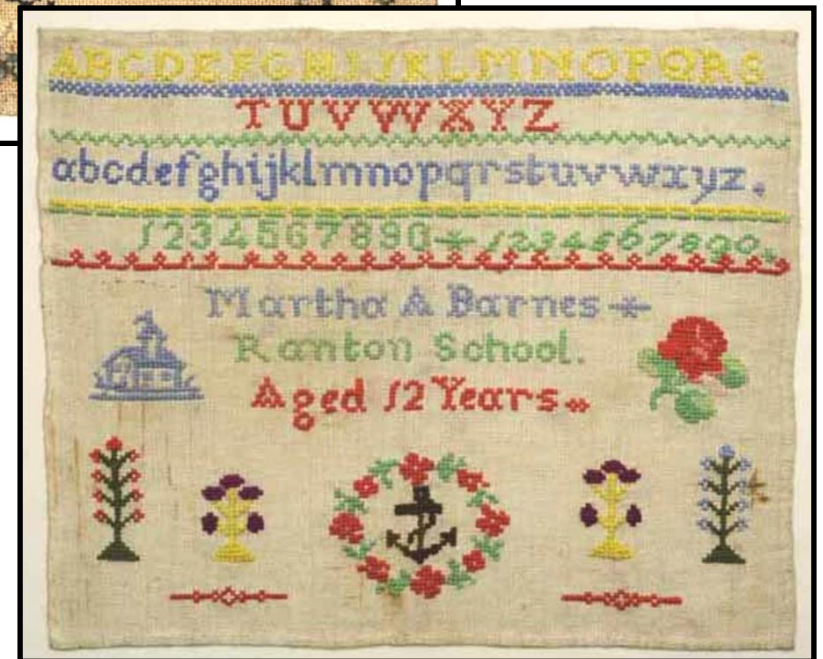

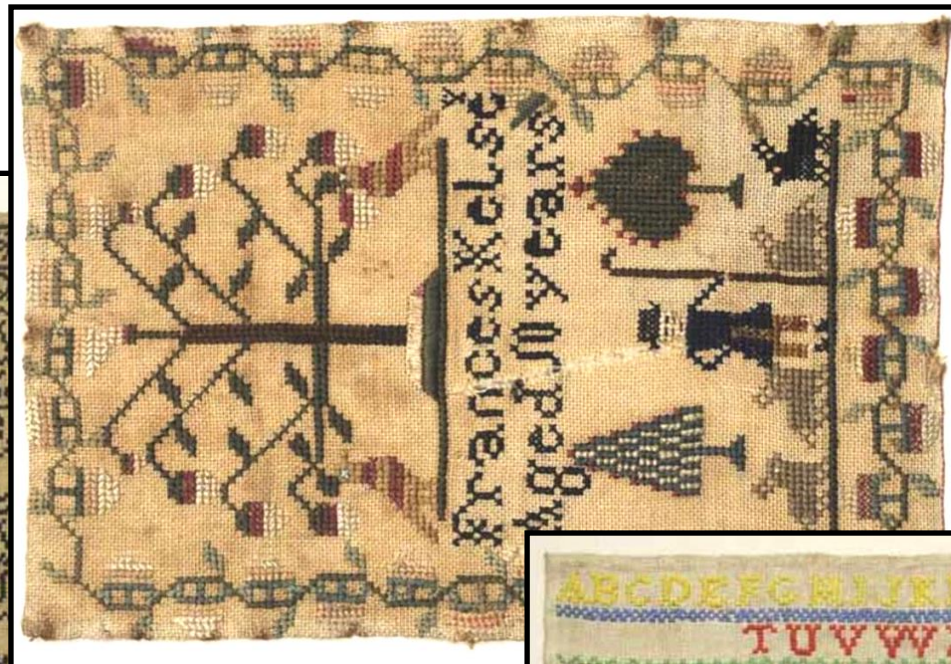

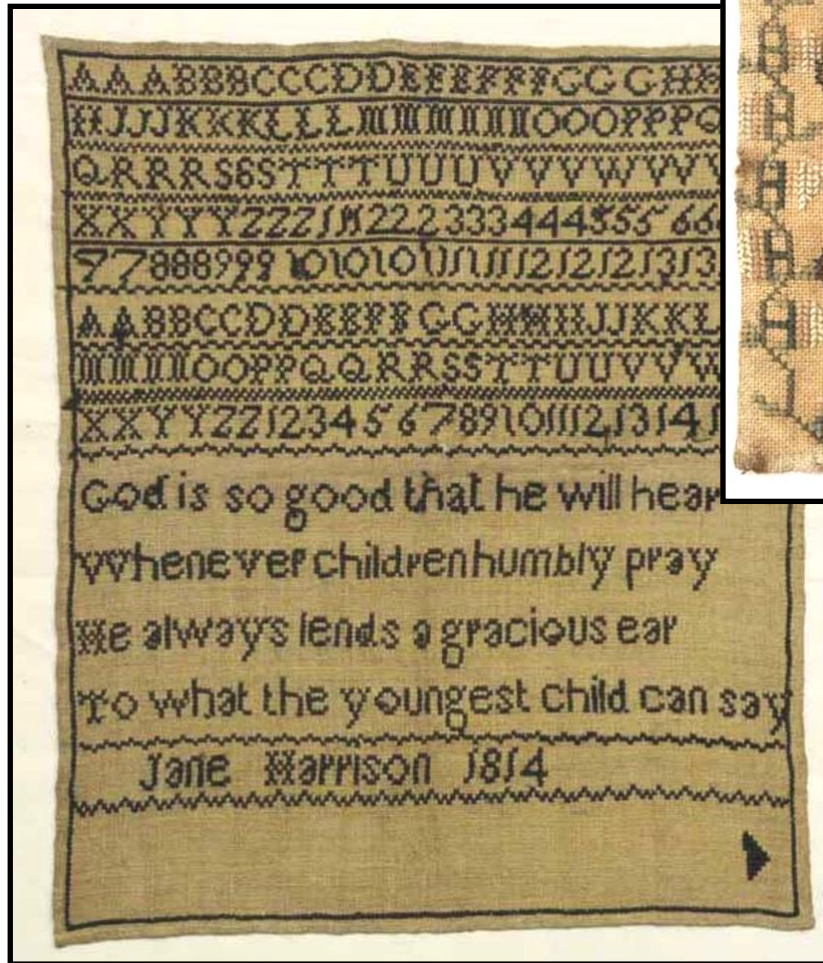

The Mercers' Chapel

Where do you think these pictures were taken? What do you think the words on the signs mean?
What does this suggest to us about Coventry's history?

These are called samplers. They are from the collection in the Herbert Art Gallery and Museum in Coventry.

What do you think their purpose is or was? What do you know about the people who made each of them?

What could you infer about the people who made each of them?

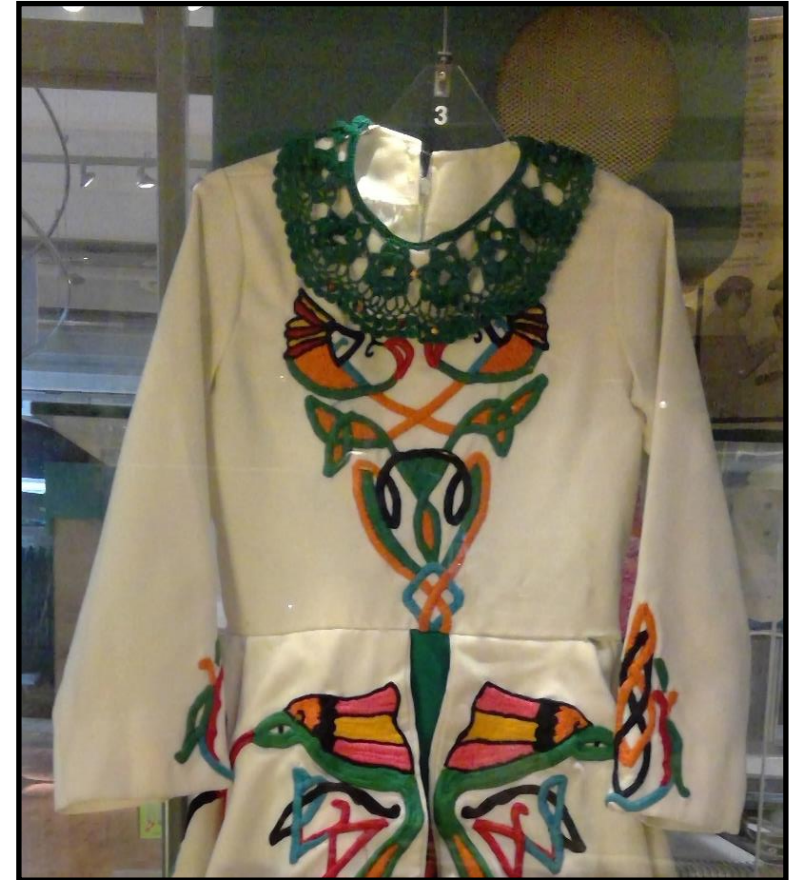

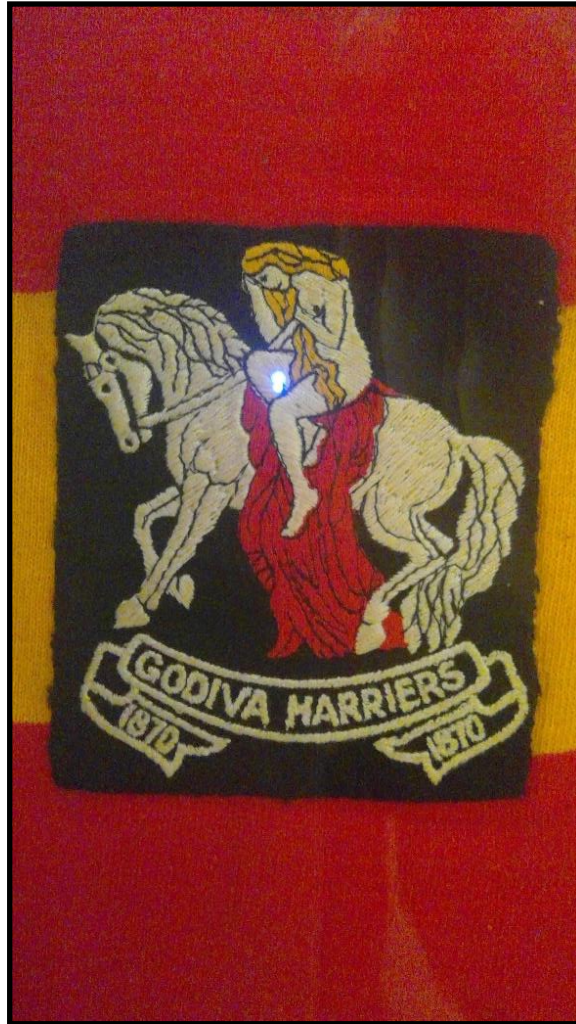

This is an item from the Coventry Transport Museum.

What do you think this is? What was its original purpose?
What is its new purpose? Why has it been embroidered?

These items are from the Herbert Art Gallery and Museum collection.

What do you think they are? When do you think they were made? What do you think their purposes were?
