

Workshop to Assess the Outcome of COP21 Climate Talks

Monday 7 March 2016, Wolfson Research Exchange, Library Building

PROGRAMME

10.45am - 11.00am TEA/COFFEE

11.00am - 12.30pm SESSION 1: COP21: CONTENT & PROCESS

Andrew Levan (Physics) Consequences for the climate of the emissions reductions pledged in INDCs submitted to COP21

Dorka Bauer (Student Journalist) What took place inside the conference hall & outside it

Sam Adelman (Law) Continuity and change in COP21

12.30pm - 1.30pm LUNCH

1.30pm - 2.45pm SESSION 2: COP21: GOVERNMENT, BUSINESS & SOCIETY

Ben Richardson (PAIS) What does the Paris agreement mean for the UK, and how does it relate to government policy?

Frederik Dahmann (WBS) Carbon pricing and its role in climate negotiations

Leon Sealey-Huggins (Sociology) Climate justice, with particular reference to the Caribbean

Half hour open discussion

2.45pm - 3.00pm TEA/COFFEE

3.00pm - 4.15pm SESSION 3: COP21: CLIMATE CHANGE & ACTIVISM

Joel Cardinal (Estates) How can public acceptance for a lower carbon society be built?

John Pickering (Psychology) Social media and COP21

Juliane Reinecke (WBS) Pension investment & climate change: what about the Universities Superannuation Scheme

Half hour open discussion

4.15pm - 4.45pm CLOSING DISCUSSION

END OF DAY DRINKS