GLOBAL RESEARCH PRIORITIES
INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

As we make our way towards the end of week 1, I am sure we've all been very busy getting used to our new schedules!

I thought to send an update on our events that we're holding in the next couple of weeks, as we now have finalised their details.

1. We'll be hosting a Triple Book Launch on Wednesday 24 October, 4 – 6PM in the new location of Social Sciences Building, Room A0.23. Dr Renske Doorenspleet, Professor Shirin Rai & Professor Gabrielle Lynch will all talk about their books, and we have a great group of Panellists who will be support the discussions. Please register here.
2. Our Annual Photography Competition is now open for submissions from staff and students across the University. As usual, submissions should be based around our Annual theme of "Democracy and Development" – please take a moment to have a look at the guidelines and the T&C's here.

Event Reminders

3. The Annual Term 1 GRP ID Networking Event will be taking place on Wednesday 17 October (1 – 3pm with lunch provided) at the Ramphal Building, R 0.04. If you are hoping to do a taster presentation, then please do indicate this on the registration form on the website. Further details can be found here.
4. Please also register your place for our public lecture by invited guest, Dr Sanjeev Jain of NIMHANS, Bangalore who will be discussing his work around the Psychological Impact of the Partition of India. This will be a fantastic lecture, followed by a casual drinks reception. For registering your space, please click here.

External Events of Interest:

Please also see attached a poster for a research seminar on “Challenges to inclusion in Indian education” on Tuesday 9 October (1 – 2.30pm, S 2.09 Law School).

Lastly, find attached information to a lecture on “Transformative Constitutionalism & its role in India Economic Growth: Its experience and the future” by Prabhuling Navagdi, Additional Solicitor General of India, taking place on Tuesday 9 October (12 – 1pm, LIB 1, Library).

As always, please do circulate to your networks/students where relevant.

We hope to see you at our events soon.
