

1. Has your view of / attitude to research changed at all?

2. Has your view of others' involvement in or with research changed?

3. Have you developed any other new understandings?

4. What do you hope SELCS can do to facilitate further research conversations?

5. What can you do to ensure you have further research conversations?

