These terms and conditions for advertising (the "Terms") apply between the University of Warwick (the "University" or "us") and the person(s) seeking to let their property through the Warwick Studentpad Platform ("WSP") (the "Service User" or "you"). Headings are used for ease of interpretation only and do not affect the construction of these Terms.

By submitting an application to register your Property (as defined below), you are agreeing to abide by these Terms. It is essential that, when agreeing to abide by these Terms, you are in a position to have full management and control of the Property and are duly authorised to enter into these Terms with us.

3. FEES, CHARGES AND REFUNDS

Payments must be made online via the University's merchant account or paid by requested invoice. Please refer to our current Pricing List for up to date information regarding pricing. Your Advertisement will not go live until we have received the Advertisement Fee in full. Once the Advertisement Fee is paid, it will not be refunded, even if your Advertisement does not go live, you decide not to complete the advertising procedure or your Property does not let. You are responsible for ensuring that you and your Property comply with these Terms before you submit your Advertisement application.
