ACADEMIC INTEGRITY CELEBRATION WEEK

Week 8: w/c 20 November 2023

Department communications pack

Academic Integrity Celebration Week at Warwick

Academic Integrity Celebration Week will take place in Week 8 (w/c 20 November 2023). Featuring a series of events, activities and resources, the celebration will promote academic integrity and good academic practices across the University. There will be a series of events to:

- Showcase best practice and share resources

- Explore the role of academic integrity

- Promote student understanding and dialogue, providing a forum to discuss academic integrity

- Provide support and guidance via Students' Union and Academic Integrity Leads stands in departments

In this communications pack, you will find content and assets to help promote academic integrity activities and events to students. As part of Academic Integrity Celebration Week, would like students to:

Enter our student competition (closes on Monday 13 November)

Attend events during Academic Integrity Celebration Week

Become a Student Academic Integrity Champion within departments

EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

This competition closes on 13 November. Entries will be judged and winners selected during Academic Integrity Celebration Week. Please promote this opportunity to students:

Enter our academic integrity competition and have your work displayed during Academic Integrity Celebration Week. You could win up to £100 in Amazon vouchers!

On the International Day of Action for Academic Integrity (18 October), we launched a competition inviting students to produce a creative submission on the theme of 'championing academic integrity in the age of Artificial Intelligence (AI)'.

This could be in the form of a poster, short video, poem, short article, t-shirt design, photograph, blog post, recipe, or any other creative ideas.

The closing date for entries is 13 November. All entries will be displayed for staff and students in the Faculty of Arts Building during Academic Integrity Celebration Week (w/c 20 November), and we will announce the winners who will receive up to £100 in Amazon vouchers.

Please find more details of the entry criteria and prizes available, and submit your entry here:

Academic Integrity Celebration Week: Department events

If you will be running academic integrity events or support drop-in sessions during the Celebration Week, please let us know here.

Please feel free to use the assets and template text within these slides in your communications to students.

Template text:

The department will be supporting Academic Integrity Celebration Week by running a series of events and drop-in support sessions.

These are open to all students, and all details can be found here: (insert timetable)

We are inviting applications from students to become Student Academic Integrity Champions. The role includes but is not limited to:

- Promoting academic integrity to students, via resources such as Moodle, webpages, videos or FAQs.

- Signposting students to support, events, or resources which focus upon academic integrity.

- Developing and communicating an awareness of regulations, procedures and signposting to advice.

- Communicating the importance of academic integrity beyond assignments, including for employability.

- Co-leading academic integrity events with student groups.

This role will enable you to develop transferable skills towards employability and will be be a positive addition to any job or further study application. You will support peers to champion academic integrity.

More information is available from your Academic Integrity Lead (add name here) and here: Celebrating Academic Integrity
