

Charity and Development

Resources to help you get to know the development and charitable sectors:

- Prospects sector overview
- Bond - A members' directory lists details for over 400 UK based voluntary organisations working in international development/development education with vacancies.
- UK Government Department for International Development
- World Service Enquiry - information and career advice to people who want to volunteer or work in international development.
- Reliefweb – Information on evolving humanitarian crises around the world. Also includes a vacancy section for experienced hires
- The Charities Digest publication, available in the University House Learning Grid, lists smaller UK charities by region and by specialism.
- The icould website consists of videos of employees talking about their work – see for example <https://icould.com/explore/search/Charities>

Although the specialist websites tend to be used to recruit experienced people, they can be used as another way to discover organisations of interest and how to contact them:

For charities:

- Charity Choice
- CharityJOB
- Charity People
- Good Moves: charity and voluntary sector recruitment
- Jobs in Charities
- Kage Partnership focus on fundraising, PR, and marketing within the not-for-profit sector. These roles can be slightly less competitive than some others within the charitable sector.
- <https://www.charitycomms.org.uk/> 'champions the role of comms professionals within charities.'
- Third Sector
- UK Charity Jobs

And for development organisations:

- Voluntary Service Overseas
- <https://www.skillshare.org/>

NOTE: Whilst the majority of overseas placements are legitimate, fraud is not entirely absent and if you are considering overseas placements you are advised to check the details of the organisation very carefully. A link from a reputed website to an external organisation is not in itself a guarantee.
