

Local(ish) NGOs and Charities

NOTE: There is no intention that this list is comprehensive. You could try a search on anything which is an interest or passion to you personally – an almost endless list which could include political persuasion, religious faith, concern for particular groups in society, links with other countries, personal experience, academic interest.... Don't forget that many of the voluntary experiences available through <https://warwick.ac.uk/about/community/volunteers> will provide skills or experience relevant to jobs in this sector.
