

For University of Warwick

When you make a booking with us or through us, it is important that you and we know clearly who is responsible for what.
This contract sets this out.

The following are the terms and conditions which apply to the Booking Contract between "you", and University of Warwick ("we", "us", "our", etc.), whose administrative offices are at University House, Kirby Corner Road, Coventry CV4 8UW, as stated on the Booking Contract. Our registered VAT number is GB 545270058.

Please read these terms carefully before you sign and submit your Booking Contract to us. These terms tell you who we are, how we will provide services to you, how you and we may change or end the contract, what to do if there is a problem and other important information. If you think that there is a mistake in these terms, please contact us to discuss.

1 Who is this contract between?

The contract is between us and you, not any other person or organisation for whom you book rooms, meals, facilities or other catering, event management or event production services set out in the Booking Contract (the "Services"). You accept responsibility for paying all charges, including any extra charges arising under this Booking Contract.

The Booking Contract is personal to you and you may not transfer your rights under this contract to any other person, or organisation.

2 How to contact us

You can contact us by telephoning our customer service team at 02476 523222 or by writing to us at conferences@warwick.ac.uk, Sales & Marketing, Warwick Conferences, University of Warwick, The Beehive, Westwood Way, Westwood Business Park, Coventry, CV4 8JE.

If we have to contact you we will do so by telephone or by writing to you at the email address or postal address you provided to us in your order.

When we use the words "writing" or "written" in these terms, this includes emails.

3 Provisional bookings

We may agree to you making a provisional booking. You may cancel provisional bookings without penalty. If you do not confirm your provisional booking we reserve the right to cancel it, but will endeavour to give you 48 hours' notice. For the avoidance of doubt, a provisional booking will not constitute a legally binding contract between us and you.

4 Confirming your booking

Your booking becomes confirmed and a contract between us comes into existence, on the basis of these terms and conditions, upon receipt by us of an unaltered Booking Contract signed by you. The Booking Contract will state the Services which you have booked, and it will include a clear statement of any other arrangements which have been agreed between you and us.

When you confirm a booking, you agree to pay all the charges for Services set out on the Booking Contract, unless these are changed or cancelled under the terms of clauses 9, 10, 12, 13 or 14 below. In that case you must pay the charges in accordance with the relevant clause.

5 Making a booking more than a year ahead

This clause 5 only applies if you are a business customer.

If you book more than a year ahead, we may need to increase our charges to reflect any increase in the cost to us of providing the Services at the time of the event. When you book, you agree to pay the charges for the Services set out on the Booking Contract, plus VAT (if this applies) at the rate applicable at the time of the event. We reserve the right to increase our charges from the figures we quote to you when you make the booking. However, we will not increase our charges in the 12 months before the event.

Following your confirmed booking, we will notify you of any changes to our charges. If the changes would increase the total amount payable for the items on the current Booking Contract by more than the increase in the Retail Prices Index, between the date of your booking and the date of the event, you will have the right to cancel the booking without charge provided that you notify us in writing within one month of us notifying you of the changes. If you do not withdraw from the booking then you agree to pay the increased amount.

6 Price and paying your invoice

Subject to clause 5, the price for the Services (which includes VAT) will be the price stated in the Booking Contract.

If the rate of VAT changes between your order date and the date we supply the Services, we will adjust the rate of VAT that you pay, unless you have already paid for the Services in full before the change in the rate of VAT takes effect.

Unless we have asked you to pay a deposit, or advance payment, (see clause 7), you will be invoiced for all charges approximately seven days after the provision of the Services. You must pay in sterling the full amount of the invoice, to the address shown on the invoice, within 14 days of the date of the invoice. You will pay any bank charges incurred in making the payment.

If you do not pay the invoice in full within 14 days, we will charge you interest on the amount outstanding at the annual rate of 4% above National Westminster Bank plc base rate on a daily basis until the actual date of payment (both before and after any judgement).

If you are a business customer you must pay all amounts due to us under these terms in full without any set-off, counterclaim, deduction or withholding (other than any deduction or withholding of tax as required by law).

7 Payment in advance

We reserve the right at any time to undertake a credit check to make sure that you will be able to meet all charges when they fall due. If we are not reasonably satisfied at any time that you will be able to meet the charges, we may, at our sole discretion, cancel the booking unless you pay a deposit or pay part of the charges in advance as we may decide or, if you are a business customer, pay part or all of the charges in advance as we may decide. The extent of the deposit, or part payment, is at our sole discretion. The same applies if we later become aware of problems with your financial situation.

8 Overseas customers and guarantees

If you are a customer from outside the UK, we reserve the right to ask for a guarantee of payment from a UK Clearing Bank and to cancel the booking if the guarantee is not provided within 14 days of our request. You will have the right to withdraw your booking without charge within seven days of us telling you of our requirements, if they are not acceptable to you, by notifying us in writing.

9 Altering your booking

If, by written agreement with us, you alter your booking, we will send you a new Booking Contract to sign and return within 14 days. The Booking Contract will set out the Services which you have booked and agreed with us. It will include details of any extra facilities which you may have agreed with us and of any items you have cancelled but must pay for under clause 10. Each new Booking Contract issued by us will, when signed by you, replace any previous Booking Contract.

10 Cancelling all or part of your booking

10.1 Cancellation more than one year in advance of the start date of the event

If you cancel part of the booking, we reserve the right to move your booking to facilities more suited to the reduced size of the event, subject to the availability of such facilities. For bookings with delegate numbers of 150 or more, cancellation charges will be applicable at 15% of the total value of the booking.

- if you cancel during the period 24 hours or less before the event, you will be liable to pay a sum equal to 100% of the charges relating to the external catering services.

10.3 If you are a business customer, unless we agree otherwise, we will treat any changes you make in dates for accommodation, or in dates or times of room hire or meals, as a cancellation and the charges set out above will apply.

11 Giving us the final details

You must confirm in writing final timings, menus and any special food requirements not less than 14 days before the scheduled commencement of the event. If you do not do this, we will supply and charge you on the basis of any provisional timings, menus and any special food requirements previously provided.

12 Our rights to end the Booking Contract

We may end the Booking Contract for the Services at any time by writing to you if:

- you do not make any payment to us when it is due and you still do not make payment within 14 days of us reminding you that payment is due;
- you do not, within a reasonable time of us asking for it, provide us with information that is necessary for us to provide the Services.

You must compensate us if you break the Booking Contract. If we end the contract in the situations set out in this clause we will refund any money you have paid in advance for the Services we have not provided but we may deduct or charge you reasonable compensation for the net costs we will incur as a result of your breaking the Booking Contract.

Where you wish to accept an alternative booking, we will use your deposit towards that alternative booking. Where you wish to cancel your booking, we may withhold your deposit and cancellation charges may apply.

14 Changes to room allocations and other changes

To meet the needs of as many customers as possible, we may alter the meeting rooms, dining rooms or residential accommodation allocated to you provided that this does not adversely affect the Services. There will be no extra charge to you if we change your room allocations.
