Recruitment of the Chair for the Institutional Athena SWAN Self-Assessment Team

There is an opportunity for a senior member of academic staff (FA9) to undertake the role of Athena SWAN Academic Lead, which will consist of the following responsibilities:

- Chair the Institutional Athena SWAN Self-Assessment team and attend other strategic University Committees when required to discuss progress.
- Oversee the progress of the Institutional Athena Silver Action Plan, and to recognise and take action when barriers/challenges to achieving the actions are identified.
- Ensure that progress is documented in preparation for the next upgrade/renewal of the Institutional submission in 3.5 years’ time.
- Take a leading role in developing an effective communication strategy for Athena SWAN activities and in developing “beacon” activities over the next 3.5 years. Such activities – with both internal and external audiences and participants – should raise awareness of Athena SWAN and the University’s commitment to gender equality and to promoting /supporting the careers of both academics and professional support staff.
- Act as Athena Champion for the University, both internally and externally.

Knowledge of Athena SWAN is required along with a commitment to its principles.

Expressions of interest should include a maximum 500 word statement about your interest and suitability for the role and should be sent to: Sandra Beaufoy, Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Manager (s.beaufoy@warwick.ac.uk). Informal enquiries can be sent to either Sandra or the Provost, Christine Ennew (c.ennew@warwick.ac.uk).

Closing date for expressions of interest is: Tuesday 6 August 2019
