26/02-03 Undergraduate Admissions

CONSIDERED:

- (a) A proposal from the Student Recruitment and Admissions Office to operate a pilot to make offers which exclude the Advanced Placement Tests (APT) to US applicants, (Paper BUGS18/02-03).
- (b) A proposal from the Student Recruitment and Admissions Office regarding the English language qualifications for students taking the engineering programme operated jointly with the Institute of Technology and Management in Gurgaon, India, (Paper BUGS19/02-03).

RESOLVED:

- (c) That the proposal from the Student Recruitment and Admissions Office to operate a pilot to make offers which exclude the Advanced Placement Tests (APT) to US applicants be approved as set out in paper BUGS18/02-03.

- (d) That the proposal from the Student Recruitment and Admissions Office regarding the English language qualifications for students taking the engineering programme operated jointly with the Institute of Technology and Management in Gurgaon, India, be approved for a pilot period of three years in the first instance as set out in paper BUGS19/02-03, subject to:
- (i) the School of Engineering monitoring closely the students' language skills during this pilot period with a view to revising the pass rates required in the ICSE or CBSE examinations where necessary;
  - (ii) all students being encouraged to take and pass the WELT certificate, preferably before being admitted to the Institute of Technology and Management but where this is not feasible, as soon as possible afterwards.
- (e) That the Director of the Student Recruitment and Admissions Office be invited to the next meeting of this Board to give members a presentation on developments in portfolio-based admissions and the implications of these for both students and academic departments.

27/02-03 Double Marking of Assessed Work

CONSIDERED:

A proposal from the Department of English and Comparative Literary Studies to operate, experimentally, single marking for all assessed essays which count as 20% or less of the total CATS weighting for any one module, paper BUGS20/02-03.

RESOLVED:

- (a) That the proposal from the Department of English and Comparative Literary Studies be not approved.
- (b) That the Department of English and Comparative Literary Studies be reminded that the University regulations on the marking of work for degree credit allow that for assessed work submitted in an anonymous form, the work may be marked by one examiner and moderated by the second.
- (c) That, in the light of (b) above, the Department of English and Comparative Literary Studies be asked to clarify their policy on the anonymous marking of assessed work.
