(b) Report on the Creation of School of Modern Languages (minute S.81/13-14 referred)

REPORTED:

That the Senate, at its meeting held on 12th March 2014 approved the establishment of the School of Modern Languages and Cultures, with effect from 1st August 2014.

CONSIDERED:

(i) An oral report from Professor Simon Swain, Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Research (Arts & Social Sciences) that work on-going in support of the creation of the School of Modern Languages was progressing; it being noted that an announcement relating to the appointment of a Head of School would soon be forthcoming.

(ii) A paper summarising amendments to University Ordinances and Regulations consequent upon the creation of the School of Modern Languages and Cultures (S.47/13-14).

RESOLVED:

That the changes to the University Regulations be approved as set out in paper S.47/13-14.

RECOMMENDED: (to the Council)

That the changes to Ordinance 7 be approved as set out in paper S.47/13-14.

99/13-14 Vice-Chancellor’s Business: Finances

REPORTED:

(a) That any reduction in tuition fees potentially arising from a change of Government together with further spending cuts would present a significant financial challenge to the University;

(b) That the USS Re-Valuation was anticipated to be a lengthy and difficult process; that outcomes would be known by March 2015 at which point the reaction of the Pensions Regulator would be crucial;

(c) That Russell Group universities would work towards an enhanced coordination and communication on these matters, recognising that care needed to be taken over issues of perceptions of collaboration, information and choice, as underscored by the recent interest of the Competition and Markets Authority in the UK HE sector.
100/13-14 Vice-Chancellor’s Business: Teaching Quality

That Teaching Quality and the Student Experience would remain key concerns over the next period with a concentration on ensuring that all teaching and departmental organisation would be at the standard of the best in the University.

101/13-14 Vice-Chancellor’s Business: London Developments

REPORTED:

(a) That the agreement for the rental by the Warwick Business School of facilities in the Shard, London, had been finalised.

(b) That there was potential for a ‘CUSP London’ to open in conjunction with King’s, announcement still pending.

102/13-14 Vice-Chancellor’s Business: Research Awards

REPORTED:

That the University’s research award income for 2013-14 was anticipated to be equivalent to the previous record year and thanks were extended to all those contributing to this position.

103/13-14 Registrar's Business: Media Coverage

REPORTED:

(a) That the University was aware of a recent newspaper article reporting on a student registered at the University and was taking action on the matter;

(b) That the University had confirmed that the views of the student were not views held by the University;

(c) That the University was aware of plans for a student protest to take place outside the Senate House on the afternoon of 12 June 2014.

104/13-14 Registrar's Business: Keeping Campus Moving

REPORTED:

(a) That all staff were encouraged to refer to the “Keep Campus Moving” webpages for up-to-date information on developments around campus and measures being taken to minimise disruption;

(b) That major events on campus, such as Degree Congregation and Open Days had been considered as part of the “Keep Campus Moving” planning.

105/13-14 University Strategy

RECEIVED:

An oral report from the Deputy Registrar updating the Senate on the the recent consultation on the Draft Strategy Refresh, noting that Heads of Department and staff fora had been held on the draft Consultation and feedback from these was being collated; that the final Strategy and associated implementation plan would be presented at the next meeting of Senate prior to consideration by the Council in July.
CONSIDERED:

A paper recommending the disestablishment of the Centre for Education and Industry, (S.49/13-14), comprising:

(a) Report on the Future of the Centre for Education and Industry (S.49/13-14);
(b) Centre for Education and Industry- Indicative Timeline (S.49/13-14i);
(c) Centre for Education and Industry Implementation Group Membership and Terms of Reference (S.49/13-14ii);
(d) Centre for Education and Industry Implementation Group Risk Register (S.49/13-14iii);
(e) Draft unconfirmed minute from the meeting of the Steering Committee held on 31st March 2014 (S.49/13-14iv);
(f) Draft reserved minutes from the meeting of the Research Committee held on 3rd April (S.49.13-14v);
(g) Draft unconfirmed minute from the meeting of the Board of Faculty of Social Sciences held on 22 May 2014 (S.49/13-14vi);
(h) Centre for Education and Industry Staff and Trade Union Consultation and feedback Summary (S.49/13-14vii);
(i) Response from UCU to the Report of the CEI Review (S.49/13-14viii);
(j) An oral report from the Provost noting:

(i) That the Review of the Centre for Education and Industry had considered the financial status of the Centre, its subject area and strategic fit with University activity;
(ii) That the Review, which had been constructive and detailed had included consultation with staff and Trades Unions;
(iii) That all potential positive outcomes were seriously considered but that the Review had concluded in favour of a recommendation for closure and dis-establishment.
(iv) In response to a query from Professor Hewlett, that the proposed disestablishment would take effect from the academic year 2014-15, but that associated steps would be taken throughout the year, noting that 9.4 FTE staff would be affected by the proposed disestablishment and that both an Enhanced Voluntary Leavers’ Scheme and potential redeployment would be implemented.
(v) In response to a query from Professor Shipman, that external contacts had been consulted, and that further verification of the appropriateness of the step being recommended had come in the form of a further deterioration in the Centre’s financial standing since the time of the Review.

RECOMMENDED: (to the Council)

That the Centre for Education and Industry be closed and disestablished with effect from the academic year 2014-15, as set out in paper S.49/13-14.
