

Dr Roy Chung GBS BBS JP
Co-founder and Non-Executive Director, Techtronic Industries Company Limited
Chairman, Vocational Training Council

Dr Roy Chung is the Co-founder and Non-Executive Director of Techtronic Industries Company Limited (TTI). He is a self-made man. Born and raised in Macau, he had to move to Hong Kong in 1960s before he finished secondary school. While humbly starting his career as a warehouse keeper, he continued his studies in evening schools. In 1985, Dr Chung, with his partner Mr Horst Pudwill, co-founded TTI which produced rechargeable battery operated power tools. Under their capable leadership, TTI started with an annual turnover of half a million US dollars to over US$7 billion in 2018. It is now a multi-national enterprise and one of the market leaders in power equipment which owns numerous global brands. Dr Chung has been named as “The King of Power Drills” by the media in Hong Kong. In 2011, he retired from the executive role in TTI and became a Non-Executive Director. He has since then placed more focus on social services.

Dr Chung encourages continuing education and lifelong learning, and he holds a Doctorate Degree of Engineering from the University of Warwick, UK, and a Doctorate Degree of Business Administration from the City University of Macau. He was awarded Honorary Doctor by the University of Newcastle, Australia, Honorary Doctor of Business Administration by the Hong Kong Polytechnic University and Honorary Doctor of Business Administration by the Lingnan University. He has also been appointed as an Industrial Professor by the University of Warwick, UK, since 2010. He is currently Chairman of Vocational Training Council, and was Deputy Chairman of Council of the Hong Kong Polytechnic University and is now its Court Honorary Chairman. He was also a Council Member of the University of Warwick, UK.

Dr Chung is highly dedicated to the advancement of the Hong Kong industry, and was Chairman of the Federation of Hong Kong Industries and is now its Honorary President. He won the Young Industrialist Awards of Hong Kong in 1997, was further awarded the Industrialist of the Year in 2014.

He has also served extensively in public and community services. He is Chairman of the Task Force on Promotion of Vocational and Professional Education and Training (VPET) and the Mandatory Provident Fund Industry Schemes Committee. He is also a member of Human Resources Planning Commission and Committee on Innovation, Technology and Re-industrialisation. He is President of the Boys’ and Girls’ Club Association of Hong Kong, a member of the Board of Directors of the Hong Kong Paediatric Foundation, and the Founder of Bright Future Charitable Foundation. He was also Executive Committee Chairman of the Outward Bound of Hong Kong and now its Trust Member.

Dr Chung has always been energetic. Apart from participating in the expeditions to the South Pole and North Pole and completing a few Trailwalker events in Hong Kong, he also completed the 100 km Trailwalker in Belgium in 2017.

He was awarded the Gold Bauhinia Star (GBS) and Bronze Bauhinia Star (BBS) by the Hong Kong SAR Government in 2017 and 2011 respectively. He was also appointed as Justice of Peace in 2005. His motto is “Concentrate on your work and keep innovating. Do your best and be strong towards challenges”.
