1. ABOUT THIS NOTICE

We ask that you read this privacy notice carefully as it contains important information on who we are, how and why we collect, store, use and share personal data, your rights in relation to your personal data and on how to contact us and supervisory authorities in the event that you have a query or complaint.

The University of Warwick (“UoW”) is committed to protecting the privacy and security of personal data. The purpose of this notice is to promote transparency in the use of personal data, and to outline how UoW collects and uses personal data during and after your working or visiting relationship with us, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation 2016 (“GDPR”) and the Data Protection Act 2018 (“DPA 2018”).

The UoW collects, uses and is responsible for certain personal data about you. This is known as “processing”. When we do so we are regulated under the GDPR and DPA 2018 which applies across the European Union and we are responsible as ‘data controller’ of that personal data for the purposes of those laws.

The purpose of this notice is to explain how the University of Warwick (“UoW”) will collect and use (process) your personal data, what rights you have in relation to that data and to provide transparency about the data collected about you.

The UoW is the data controller under the GDPR and DPA 2018 and we will process your personal data in accordance with the GDPR and DPA 2018 at all times. You, as a ‘data subject’, therefore have specific rights to the data that we hold, collect and process.

Throughout this notice, “University”, “we”, “our”, and “us” refer to the University of Warwick; “you” and “your” refer to job applicants, employees, (current and former), workers (including agency), apprentices, interns, work experience and volunteers, contractors, honorary/visiting associates.

If you would like this notice in another format (for example: audio, large print, braille), please contact us (see ‘How to contact us’ above).

2. THE PERSONAL DATA WE COLLECT AND USE

The following are examples of personal data which may be collected, stored and used:
• Personal contact details such as name, date of birth title, addresses, telephone numbers, and personal email addresses.

• Marital status and dependants

• Gender.

• Next of kin and nominated emergency contact information.

• National Insurance number, bank account details, payroll records and tax status information

• Salary, annual leave, pension and benefits information.

• Copy of driving licence where your employment involves driving for the UoW.

• Recruitment information (including copies of right to work documentation, references and other information included in a CV or cover letter or as part of the application process).

• Employment records (including job titles, work history, working hours, training records and professional memberships).

• Compensation history, including merit pay and SPRR payments.

We may also collect, store and use the following types of special category personal data:

- Information about your race or ethnicity, religious beliefs for equality, diversity and inclusion monitoring and institutional reporting
- Trade union membership.
- Information about your health, including any medical condition, health and sickness records, and disability information.
- Information about criminal convictions and offences.

3. HOW THE UOW OBTAINS YOUR PERSONAL DATA

Personal data of employees, workers (including agency), volunteers and work experience, contractors, honorary position holders and visiting individuals is typically collected through the application and recruitment process, either directly from the data subjects or sometimes from an employment agency or background check provider. Additional information may be collected from third parties such as former employers, and other referees. UoW will also collect additional personal data in the course of work related activities throughout the period of you working for or with the University.

5. LAWFUL BASES FOR PROCESSING YOUR PERSONAL DATA UNDER THE GDPR AND DPA 2018

Personal data will only be processed when the law permits this to happen. Most commonly personal data will be processed in the following circumstances:

- Where you have given us your consent
- In order to fulfil UoW’s obligations to you as part of your contract of employment.
- Where UoW needs to comply with a legal obligation (for example, the detection or prevention of crime and financial regulations)
- Where it is necessary for UoW’s legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.
- To protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another person (for example, in the case of a medical emergency)
- In order to perform a task carried out in the public interest

SPECIAL CATEGORY DATA

We may only process special category personal data in the following circumstances where, in addition to a lawful basis for processing, there exists one of the following grounds:

- Explicit consent – where you have given us explicit consent.

- Legal obligation related to employment - The processing is necessary for a legal obligation in the field of employment and social security law or for a collective agreement.

- Vital interests - The processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the individual or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent. This is typically limited to processing needed for medical emergencies.

- Not for profit bodies - The processing is carried out in the course of the legitimate activities of a not-for-profit body and only relates to members or related persons and the personal data is not disclosed outside that body without consent.

- Public information - The processing relates to personal data which is manifestly made public by the data subject.
- Legal claims - The processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or whenever courts are acting in their judicial capacity.

- Substantial public interest - The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, on the basis of Union or Member State law.

- Healthcare - The processing is necessary for healthcare purposes and is subject to suitable safeguards.

- Public health - The processing is necessary for public health purposes and is based on Union or Member State law.

- Archive - The processing is necessary for archiving, scientific or historical research purposes, or statistical purposes and is based on Union or Member State law. Member States can introduce additional conditions in relation to health, genetic, or biometric data.

UoW will only use personal data for the purposes for which it was collected unless it is considered reasonably that it is needed for another purpose and the reason is compatible with the original purpose. If the University needs to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, it will notify you and will explain the legal basis that permits it to do so. The University may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with this policy and procedure, where this is permitted by law.

In limited circumstances UoW may contact you for your written consent to the processing of particularly sensitive data. In such circumstances UoW will provide you with full details of the information needed and the reason it is needed, so that you can consider whether you wish to give your consent.

Where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal data for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. Individuals need to write to info_compliance@warwick.ac.uk to withdraw their consent. Once UoW has been notified that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your data for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law. If the latter is the case we will inform you of this legitimate basis.

6. DATA SHARING

UoW may share your personal data with third parties where required by law, where it is necessary to administer the working relationship with you or where there is another legitimate interest in so doing including, but not limited to, for joint appointments with other external organisations. Third parties with whom we may share your data include:

Staff Parking Facilities

Staff are offered the option of purchasing a permit to park in UoW car parks. The scheme is administered on behalf of UoW by Car Parking Partnership ("CPP") and Parking Eye.
By opting in to the scheme you enter into a contract with UoW for the provision of a service, namely parking. UoW will collect the following data in order to provide that service under contract.

1. Vehicle registration number
2. Make and model of vehicle

If parking terms and conditions are breached, UoW will share the following data with CPP and Parking Eye for enforcement purposes:

1. Your vehicle registration number
2. The start and end date of your parking permit

Transfers of data outside of the EEA

We may transfer the personal data we collect about you to countries outside the EEA so long as there is a lawful basis for doing so or we have your consent. In certain circumstances we may seek your explicit consent to send your personal data outside of the EEA. When doing so we will inform you in clear terms of the data protection framework in place in the relevant countries in order to enable you to make an informed decision. Before sending your personal data to countries outside of the EEA data we will ensure that adequate data protection provisions are in place, the processor has provided appropriate safeguards to ensure enforceable rights and legal remedies or other specified conditions are met under data protection law.

7. RETENTION OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

The GDPR and DPA 2018 require that personal data should be kept for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data are processed (except in certain specific and limited instances).

The University’s Record Retention Schedule (RRS) is a tool that enables the University to transparently demonstrate how the organisation complies with its data protection obligations by making provision for the time periods for which common classes of record are retained by UoW.

Full details of the retention periods of records can be found by viewing the records management page and selecting the University’s Record Retention Schedule (RRS), which is kept up to date separately.

8. YOURS RIGHTS AS A DATA SUBJECT
Under the GDPR and DPA 2018 you have a number of important rights free of charge.

You have the right to:

- Fair processing of data and transparency over how we use your personal data
- Access to your personal data and to certain other supplementary information that this Privacy Notice is already designed to address
- Require us to correct any mistakes in the data we hold on you
- Require the erasure of personal data concerning you in certain situations
- Receive the personal data concerning you which you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to a third party in certain situations
- Object at any time to processing of personal data concerning you for direct marketing
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means which produce legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affect you
- Object in certain other situations to our continued processing of your personal data
- Otherwise restrict our processing of your personal data in certain circumstances
- Claim compensation for damages caused by our breach of any data protection laws
- You can request to be removed from future publications and digital content at any time, but you cannot be removed from materials which have already been published.

To exercise any of these rights an individual needs to send an email to infocompliance@warwick.ac.uk. No fee will be charged although the University reserves the right to charge a fee if a data subject access request is made or the request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive, or to refuse to comply with the request in these circumstances.

9. KEEPING YOUR PERSONAL DATA SECURE

The UoW keeps your personal data secure at all times using both physical and technical measures.

Where appropriate, we also take measures such as anonymisation to ensure data cannot be used to identify you and/or encryption to ensure that the data cannot be accessed without the right security accesses and codes.
Where UoW engages a third party to process personal data it will do so on the basis of a written contract which conforms to the security requirement of the GDPR and DPA 2018.

UoW takes measures to enable data to be restored and accessed in a timely manner in the event of a physical or technical incident.

UoW also ensures that we have appropriate processes in place to test the effectiveness of our security measures.

10. HOW TO CONTACT US
We hope that our Data Protection Officer (DPO) can resolve any query, concern or complaint you raise about our use of your personal data on the contact details below:
