The University of Warwick wishes to notify you of a collection of royalty data, conducted by the Copyright Licensing Agency (CLA) for thirty working days from Monday 13th January to Friday 21st February.

If you are photocopying from books, journals, magazines or any other printed resource which includes copyright content please take a few moments to read the instruction poster located by the relevant photocopier(s) /Multifunction Devices (MFDs) that will be distributed to the department in advance of the collection date as needed.

All that is required is a single copy of the identifying page of the publication (title or verso page) including the ISBN/ISSN, where available.

Paper printouts from digital material made under the CLA licence are subject to the same terms and conditions as a photocopy and should be included in the Data Collection.

Copies of copies are included, as are open resources and material from hybrid publications (where a mix of copyright and open access content is included, particularly in journals).

Please note that copying for the purposes of the Data Collection includes photocopying and print copies made from scans when this is done as an alternative to making photocopies.

Please affix a CLA data label to the copy, indicate quantities and place it in the yellow collection box that will be distributed to departments in advance of the collection date as needed.
