

Pay a fine using My Library Account

1. You can pay a fine online by accessing 'My Library Account' on the Library homepage.

2. You will need to log in using your university number and password.

The screenshot shows a login form with two columns: 'University Students and Staff' and 'Visitors'. The 'University Students and Staff' column has fields for 'Warwick Username' and 'Warwick Password', with a 'Submit' button below. The 'Visitors' column has fields for 'p + Library number eg. p92752212' and 'PIN', with a 'Submit' button below. There is also a 'Text only | Sign in' link in the top right corner.

3. Selecting the [Fines/Fees] section will show you more information regarding the unpaid fines.

4. You can then select [Pay fines online]. This will redirect you to a new window.

5. Please take note of the key information found on this page.

Fines payments - online

Welcome to the Library 24 hour online payment service. This enables you to pay fines or charges online using a valid credit or debit card.

- University staff and students log in using Warwick's Web sign-on
- You will require your payment card details and your card billing address. Please note: the University does not retain your credit/debit card details
- When you sign on you will see that all fines owing are selected for payment, but you can opt to deselect any item by clicking in the box on the right to remove the green tick. Please note: the minimum payment per transaction is £0.20

6. Select [Warwick's Web Sign-on] to continue with online payment. You might have to enter your username and password again.

7. Make sure that you have read the terms and conditions. Click to confirm and click again on [Pay fines online] to proceed with the payment.
