

Researcher Development Consultant

Dr Harriet Richmond

Harriet joined the University in 2022 as the Researcher Development Consultant, with responsibility for managing, developing and delivering professional development programmes for researchers.

Prior to joining Warwick, Harriet was a Head of Department within a Faculty of Business and Law at a post-92 university, with experience of teaching and programme management at undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral levels.

Harriet adopts a research-informed approach to professional development and learning. For example, in 2023 – 24 Harriet was PI on a research project, entitled ‘Research practices as sites of research culture: The barriers to, and enablers of, research identified through creative workshops that support researchers to explore research problems.’

In 2025-26, Harriet is a Co-I on three research projects:

- Supervising at a Distance (Warwick–Stellenbosch Research Collaboration Fund, PI: Dr James Burford)
- Sustainability Training Academy (IGSD, the Governments of Azerbaijan and Uzbekistan, PI: Professor Elena Korosteleva)
- Early Career Researchers’ Transitional Identities (PI: Dr Ayten Alibaba)

Harriet’s research interests are the formation and development of professional identities, work-based and professional learning, and creative research methods. Harriet is one of the three co-founders of the international Non-Traditional Research Methods Network (NTRM).

- Richmond, H. (2022). Use of Collage in Autoethnography. Exchanges: The Interdisciplinary Research Journal, 10(1), 145–154. <https://doi.org/10.31273/eirj.v10i1.1218>
- Richmond, H. (2025). The Creative Researcher. Exchanges: The Interdisciplinary Research Journal, 12(3), 1–30. <https://doi.org/10.31273/eirj.v12i3.1844>

Find out more: linkedin.com/in/drharrietricmond

