

Learning and Development business partner

Kevin Hamer

Kevin has 30 years' experience working in a variety of learning and development roles in the private and public sector. He has worked at Warwick for 22 years supporting departments across Professional services, the Commercial group (CCSG), Estates and the Academy.

As a member of the Leadership and Management Development team, Kevin has a hybrid role, providing a dedicated service to leaders and managers across CCSG, whilst also supporting the central LMD team with the design and facilitation of our programmes and courses alongside undertaking various core projects.

Kevin is an experienced facilitator and qualified coach. He is an accredited Master practitioner for Strengthscope and practitioner for MBTI, Insights Discovery and Belbin. He has coached senior leaders and managers in a diverse variety of roles for over 10 years.

He has a relaxed style and approach, aiming to ensure that participants feel comfortable in the collective learning space.
