

Learning and Development Business Partner

Natalie Pocock

Natalie has over 15 years' experience within the Education and Training sectors, and has worked in Learning and Development at Warwick since 2016. As a member of the Leadership and Management Development team, Natalie's role involves developing, designing and delivering staff learning interventions, including short courses, programmes, and bespoke options; strategic and consultancy-led projects; and coaching provision.

Natalie is the University's Champion for the Aurora Female Leadership Development Programme, and has responsibility for PDR across the institution.

Natalie also chairs a national special interest group for staff developers who are interested in exploring and using innovative and active learning principles, and she is committed to offering experiential, participatory, and creative learning opportunities in her sessions.

She is an accredited Insights Discovery practitioner and Strengthscope Master Practitioner. She is a qualified coach, and holds Senior Fellowship of the Higher Education Academy and Associate Membership of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development.
