

TITLE OF WORKSHOP: RESEARCH CAREER 5 SERIES: MAKING AN IMPACT IN INTERVIEWS

DATE: 24 JUNE 2020

COLLATED FEEDBACK

FACILITATOR: NAOMI URVINE

1 What were your expectations for this webinar, and to what extent do you believe the webinar has enabled you to meet these?

- The webinar exceeded my expectations in discussing interview questions, scenarios and approach.
- Thinking about what interviewers look for in a candidate.
- I expected it to be more like those "how to do well in an interview" guides that can be found online on career advice websites. I was pleased to see the webinar was more than that, looking at a more complete picture. This has helped me thinking about the preparation for an interview.
- Some useful tips on interviewing effectively.

2. How will attending this webinar benefit your work?

- This will enable me to skills match effectively to job roles and look at career development.
- It was beneficial in understanding how to present effectively.
- It has encouraged me to think about what I want to gain from a job/assess where my priorities lie and act accordingly (whether that's choosing the right job or speaking to my line manager about developing and progressing the current one). This ultimately should lead to more job satisfaction and therefore better performance.
- Encouraged me to collect my STAR evidence which will be helpful for CV, PDR and interviews.

3. Did you experience any technical problems accessing or participating in this webinar, if, so please provide details?

- No.
- N/A.
- None.
- Mac wanted to restart Zoom to get the microscope working properly.

4. What changes would you make to improve this webinar for future participants?

- None.
- It was very good.
- None. I would suggest not to exceed the number of participants we had (for online delivery at least).
- Either make it longer or keep to time. It is always very slow at the beginning when we're just setting the scene and then a complete rush for the actual content and advice at the end of the session. Many people had to leave before it finished.

- I very much enjoyed the webinar. Not only did it convey some very useful practical skills, it also boosted confidence, hopefully making the whole interviewing process a more enjoyable experience.
