

Export Control Basic Awareness Flowchart

This Flowchart is designed to help researchers understand if they need to know more about export control. Those seeking more detailed guidance or advice as to whether they need to apply for an export licence should consult the University Export Control Website.

Please note: The word 'item' is used in this flowchart to encompass any goods, technology or software intended for export outside the UK.