Exchange Academic Overview

TERM DATES

Fall Term: early September – early January

Spring Term: late February – early July

*Please note that the term dates are subject to change. The most up-to-date academic calendar will be sent to the students once confirmed. The duration of classes vary according to different course schedule, and the exam schedule for each course is made available during the semester. Students are encouraged to make their return flight arrangements after they confirm the exam date with professors.

ORIENTATION

International Student Orientation is mandatory for BBA exchange students, hosted by the International Exchange & Cooperation Office. The one-day orientation will be held in late August and late February before the classes begin. It is strongly recommended that students arrange to be in Shanghai one week prior to classes starting in order to attend the orientation, complete registration, arrange accommodation, and become familiar with the surroundings.

COURSE

Each credit point corresponds to 18 contact hours per semester. For example, a two-credit subject equal 36 hours per semester, a 3-credit subject equals 54 hours. Exchange students may study a maximum of 6 courses; a minimum of 2 courses is required for exchange students to maintain visa status.

LOAD & CREDITS

TEXTBOOKS

The cost of textbooks is not included in tuition. Exchange students should purchase their own copies.

COURSE

Exchange students have the freedom in course selection via the Fudan online course registration system provided they meet the course prerequisites on a space available basis. Courses registration for exchange students starts on the first day of class. Since the English taught course list is not available online, exchange students may contact program coordinator for the information within one month prior to the beginning of semester.

REGISTRATION

PROCESS

CLASS ATTENDANCE Class participation is mandatory and is part of the course grade. Students are required to inform the instructor prior to the class if they will be absent. Travel reasons will not be approved as excuses. Usually, auditing is not allowed.

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS Exchange students must be on BBA or relevant programs with junior or above levels selected by the partner schools.

EXAMINATIONS Exam dates will be announced by respective courses. Students must have attended at least 2/3 of classes to be eligible for the final exams. The examinations are held in the two-week period following the last class. Special arrangements cannot be made for exchange students to write their exams in other than the official examination period.

OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS Official transcripts are issued approximately 6 to 8 weeks following the end of the term. One copy of the official transcript will be sent to student's home coordinator.
