Volunteer in Florianopolis, Brazil with AIESEC for 6 weeks

What I gained from the experience:

- Invaluable experience of fully immersing myself in Brazil's culture and society
- Made lifelong friends with locals and also with other volunteers from all parts of the world
- Learned a new language which is Portuguese!!!
- Taught me the importance of time management and money management
- I became more independent and confident to do solo travelling in the future

EXPLORING BRAZIL:

- AÇAI
- GUARANÁ
- ACARAJÉ
- RIO DE JANEIRO
- IGUAZU FALLS FROM BRAZIL AND ARGENTINA SIDE

Top tip: Always keep an open mind when you are abroad and never hesitate to try new things because you might end up loving it

Worked as a volunteer at ACAM Mocotó, an NGO that provides a safe social and educational space before and after school for children and teenagers of the local community

My responsibilities include, helping the teachers in class, assisting students with school work, organizing fun activities to help students gain new knowledge and lastly teaching English
