ARE YOU OK?

The SU have launched a new mental health and wellbeing campaign - Are you OK? It's all about being more open about mental health and wellbeing, promoting dialogue between friends and acknowledging when things are tough, so that they can be put right. Check out the calendar of Are You OK days and events.

NEW PRO-VICE- CHANCELLOR (EDUCATION)

Professor Chris Hughes will have responsibility for maintaining and enhancing excellent standards of undergraduate and postgraduate teaching at Warwick.

ONE BIG THING

Join in with One Big Thing and pledge 30 minutes of physical activity on Wednesday 19th October. We're aiming to get everyone across campus and beyond to participate in 10 minutes of physical activity throughout the day. In need of some ideas? There's plenty to be found on the website.

YOUR HUMAN DOCUMENT

Love Photography? The Human Document exhibition is currently on at the Mead Gallery in the Arts Centre. Take part in the competition and win a framed photograph from the exhibition.

EXPLORE YOUR HOME

Moved off-campus? The SU has some helpful hints on how to get started with inventories, recycling, bonding with housemates, and legal matters.
