Formula to calculate funds required:

Course fees due in your CAS – any fees already paid to the University in your CAS – any accommodation fees already paid to the university (up to £1265) in your CAS + living cost (£1015/month x months/remaining length of your course, for up to 9 months)
For example, if you are starting a 12-month Master's degree, course fees £26500, already paid £500 in deposit and £250 accommodation deposit. The total amount required will be:
£26500 – 500 – 250 + £9135 (1015x9) = £34885

Calculate how much you need here:

Course fees £ _____ - fees paid £ _____ - Accommodation paid £ _____ + Maintenance £ _____ = Total £ _____

(Note: If you are continuing on a course, if you apply after the first Term of the current academic year, you should use course fees due and paid for the next academic year. If you require extension to complete a PhD course, you are likely to need to prepare an additional 4-6 months of maintenance to cover viva and correction. Please prepare funds accordingly, and your Adviser will confirm the detailed amount required when you meet. Your CAS will be sent to you after you have submitted your Tier 4 application).
