

24 Give Poetry a Try

Have you heard of an acrostic poem? A poem where the first letter of each line spells out a word or a phrase vertically (so you read it top to bottom)?

YOUR CHALLENGE: Can you use the letters of RESONATE to write an acrostic poem?

If you want to share your poem with us we'd love to read it.

To find out how to share it please go to the Resonate Activity Book page on the Resonate website.

If you found that fun why not try to write another one using a different word – maybe your name, or your favourite hobby, or favourite animal.

There are other types of poem you can try as well – a sonnet, a limerick, a haiku plus others – why not do some research to find out what else you could try.

For over 4000 years (that we know of) people around the world have used poetry to tell stories, to be words in songs or to make people laugh. Poetry can help people express their feelings, celebrate joy and describe the world they live in.
